

In Middleton, N. Y., the other day a cat was the unwitting means of saving a young woman from what most likely would have been an unhappy marriage. The cat was dozing in a chair when the young woman's fiancé called on her. The young man objected to pussy, and tumbled her roughly to the floor. The young woman remonstrated with him for his manner of treating her pet, whereupon he seized the cat by the ears and threw it out of the window. The act of cruelty killed all the love the young woman had ever felt for the man. Drawing off her engagement ring she handed it to him and left the room. Except for the incident, which disclosed the man's temperament, within a few years he might have been serving the young woman pretty much as he did the cat.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGAGA, JAN. 3, 1902.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

The populists are going to put out a state ticket. What an up hill battle.

On Christmas day 5,000 people were fed in Cleveland, O., by the Salvation Army.

It is reported that the railroads entering Atlanta will refuse to pay rent demanded for the new depot.

The State School money has been apportioned and Lumpkin county will get $5,278.20 this year. Total amount for the state $1,528,028.76.

At Chicago a man committed suicide because a girl he loved refused to accept a Christmas present from him. How foolish we mortals are.

On Christmas day one thousand soldiers engaged in a fight at San Francisco. It started in a saloon and strange to say not a single man was killed.

Atlanta took in $800 for fines imposed for different violations in the city on Christmas day, those leaving cash deposits not included. Right good days work.

Gov. Candler makes the statement that he is not a candidate for anything. This will put a quietus to the report that he is going to run for congress in the 9th district.

On Christmas morning the manager of the orphan's home at Decatur, received from J. B. Maggard, of Dalton, Ga., a check for $1,000 as an endowment to the many orphans located there.

During services at a country church in Ohio the other day a row occurred and six men were fatally wounded. This is a peculiar way of serving the Lord, but it may be a good way to kill out sinners.

The dailies come to us full of reports of stealing, accidents, murders and suicides occurring during the holidays. Some for the like of money, some for the want of being loved and others too full of liquor.

James Hicks, a wealthy iron manufacturer, died in the Waldorf, Astoria on the 20th ult. from blood poisoning resulting from licking an envelope. The sharp edge of the envelope cut his lips and the poisoning resulted.

Admiral Schley's share of the prize money for the destruction of the Spanish fleet at Santiago was $3,834. Sampson, who arrived on the New York after the battle, got $25,000, and Captain Chadwick of the New York will receive $14,000.

J. H. Jackson, of Atlanta, with four assistants stood on Christmas eve day and counted the number of persons who passed over the viaduct of that city, Jackson claiming that the Lord commanded him to do so. This shows that the fool killer is absent from Atlanta.

Near Birmingham, Ala., recently a man's decomposed body was found up in a church steeple with a knife by his side. The supposition is that he wanted to get the start of all others when the trumpet sounded so as to avoid the rush to that beautiful land on high.

Four years ago when we took charge of the Nugget it was our aim to run it strictly non partisan in politics and during the entire time have not opened our mouth for any political party whatever. But we have changed our mind as we grow older and decided to cast our lot from now on with the democratic party, and do what we can for it in a fair, square and honest manner. There are but two great parties strictly speaking—democratic and republican—and the former is our choice. For many years we belonged to it and now go back to stay for the purpose of putting our shoulders to the wheel and help push whenever needed.

Mining Notes.

Work will soon begin at the Chestnut Gap Copper mines in Fannin county.

Preparations are being made to put up a ten stamp mill down at the Betz mine. John Sargent, who built the Crown Mountain mill will do the work.

Work at the Hand had to suspend Monday until the canal dam, injured by the freshet, was repaired, as the water was cut off rendering them unable to do anything.

The freshet left the Ashley boat out in the field on dry land where it will remain until spring, as we understand that the gentleman doesn't propose to mine any more here until then.

The Rans Hill Mining Company in Fannin county, recently incorporated, is going to put up a mill with a capacity of 24 tons a day and use the waters of Noon-tootley creek for placer work.

This week the deed to the Briar Patch property, which was recently sold by Howell & Miller to The Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co. for $60,000, was placed on the records of the Superior Court of Lumpkin county.

The Rider brothers, who have been working for Mr. Ashley on the Chestate river, left last Monday for Dawson county to assist in the building of a dredge boat to be put into the Etawah river at Dougherty. The boat will be 30x 80—7 feet deep.

At the Gorge power plant a number of hands under the supervision of "Choctaw" Davis and J. H. Jenkins, are conducting the work as fast as possible, cutting logs and taking out rock for the dam. Gen. Warner says that he is going to secure enough of each and have everything ready when a favorable spell comes and put enough of hands on to build the dam above the danger line so as to avoid any loss. The recent freshet damaged them none comparatively speaking, only washing a few logs that were near the river bank away.

Sunday morning when the distress whistle was sounded on the Birch or Bryman boat every one who heard it knew that the Chestate river was dangerously high for this whistle makes no false reports. This note of warning caused manager Moore of Crown Mountain to soon have a crowd of hands at work at their pumping station located on this stream, to prevent any damage to the machinery. The waters were raging but they succeeded in their efforts without any damage whatever and on Monday Crown Mountain plant was moving along as if no disturbances had occurred whatever being the only mine in the county but what was damaged more or less. Their other Huntington mill is about ready to run and everything else is moving successfully on time both day and night.

Another big mining deal was made with the closing of the old year, being the Cavender's Creek property in this county by Capt. R. R. Asbury, of White, to S. A. Jones, of Waynesville, N. C., for the sum of $75,000. A large amount of the money was paid over just before Christmas and work will be commenced on a big scale right away. Really it is reported that part of the machinery for operating the mine has already been ordered. The property is composed of near 4,000 acres of some of the most valuable gold mining lands in the county. All this property didn't belong to Capt. Asbury alone, only had options on some of it from various owners causing this deal to place money into the hands of many of the hard working farmers of that section and persons in various portions of the county and even to some beyond its limits, thus accomplishing more good than if it had been paid to one man or a company composed of a few persons. Yes, it is a great help to the county and to every one of its citizens and we trust that the purchaser will be well rewarded for this big outlay of money. The deeds were recorded this week.

DEAD AND GONE.

Those Buried in the Dahlonega Cemetery Last Year.

The number of persons buried in the Dahlonega cemetery in the year just closed is 26—21 whites and 5 colored. The list of which was kindly furnished us by John Adams, who lives close to the city of the dead and kept a correct record of the same, which we publish for the benefit of the former citizens of Dahlonega who may not know who have gone to the world beyond during the past twelve months. It is as follows:

WHITES.

Important New Post Office Ruling.

The following notice from the National Publishers Bureau explains itself:

The Post office officials at Washington, have just ruled that a subscription to any publication, entered as second class matter, MUST BE DISCONTINUED, for the time for which it is paid in advance has expired. Any violation of this will deprive the publishers of the pound rates.

This means if a publisher credits a single subscriber that his paper is debared from the mails. The publishers throughout the entire country are up in arms about it, and many resolutions have been sent forward asking that the Third Assistant Postmaster General be removed on account of it. Subscribers who have not paid in advance and neglected to renew should do so at once. The ruling has not appeared in the guide yet but when it does the names of every subscriber who has not complied with this rule will be dropped at once without a moment's warning farther than this when such instructions are sent out to postmasters.

Carrying Pistols.

We clip the following wise words of advice from the Marietta Journal, which is applicable to the pistol toters of Dahlonega:

No Marietta young or old man should carry a pistol. The pistol toter generally gets into trouble. If you carry a pistol you will probably be quick to use it. If you do not have one on your person, you will be more discreet, say less provoking words and get out of a difficulty some way without shooting anyone, and bringing a life time trouble on two families. Don't carry a pistol. You had better take a good beating than to shoot anyone. The beating will get well, the dead man can never be brought to life again.

The federal prison in Atlanta will be ready for the reception of prisoners January 15. The prison will be used for southern prisoners who may be sent from the courts, while a number from the south who have already been committed to prison within recent dates will be removed to this one in Atlanta.

Since our first side went to press, publishing the ad. of Paul E. Castleberry & Co., it has sold out to M. G. Head, who will continue the business at the same stand.

"The South Carolina and Interstate and West Indian Exposition will be held in the city of Charleston from December 1st, 1901, to June 1st, 1902. There is no place on this continent where the climatic conditions are so favorable for a Mid-Winter Exposition.

Out of door life in Charleston during the winter season is a perpetual life. Flowers bloom in the open gardens throughout the year, and a bowl of roses on the Christmas dinner table is not an unusual sight.

Visit the Exposition and Travel via the G. J. & S and Georgia Roads. Short Line! Quick Time!

Low Rates! For further information call on local Agents or Samuel C. Dunlap, Gainesville, Ga.

The Christmas fights in Dahlonega were opened at noon by Ollie Jones and Clyde Loyeless, two brother-in-laws. Clyde said something about Ollie some months ago causing an unpleasant feeling between the two ever since, and on that day Ollie jumped at Clyde and they went to fighting. They were separated and Ollie carried to the lock up. Mr. Hutchins, a special friend to Ollie, said something and he was carried along too. Will Childers, who was standing near asked the marshal to take him along with them, and he was accommodated, but all were soon turned loose again. In a few hours afterwards Charlie Rice and Charlie Roberts hatched on account of a remark made by Roberts to Rice a short time previous. They were separated by friends, went home to cool off and this ended the fights for the day. Later on four fantastic riders appeared and rode around for awhile, which was the closing scene for the Christmas flog.

A difficulty arose between Bilups Stargel and Marion Bowen, of this county, a few days before Christmas, during which Bowen snatched his pistol at Stargel and the latter killed him and left. Officers went in pursuit but failed to overtake him. Stargel's father has always been a law abiding man and informed us that he would have his son return if he knew his whereabouts.

Since the Cane Creek bridge washed away the road by the Barlow mine is being used.

Stop the Blight

It is a sad thing to see fine fruit trees spoiled by the blight. You can always tell them from the rest. They never do well afterwards but stay small and sickly.

It is worse to see a blight strike children. Good health is the natural right of children. But some of them don't get their rights. While the rest grow big and strong one stays small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion can stop that blight. There is no reason why such a child should stay small. Scott's Emulsion is a medicine with lots of strength in it—the kind of strength that makes things grow.

Scott's Emulsion makes children grow, makes them eat, makes them sleep, makes them play. Give the weak child a chance. Scott's Emulsion will make it catch up with the rest.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion, and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 459 East St., New York, and all druggists.

CHAINED FOR TEN YEARS. There is nothing like Asthma. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails. The REV. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthma Cure received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was always a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle." Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. B'nai Jacob, New York, Jan. 3, 1901. DR. TAFT BROS' MEDICINE CO., Gentlemen: Your Asthma Cure is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful. After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthma Cure contains no opium, morphine, chloroform or ether. Very truly yours, REV. DR. MORRIS WELSCHER. AVON SPRINGS, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1901. DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO. Gentlemen: I write this testimony from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthma Cure for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 120th Street, New York. I at once obtained a bottle of Asthma Cure. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease. Yours respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D. DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO. Gentlemen: I was troubled with asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have now purchased your full size bottle, and I am very grateful. I have family of four children and for six years was unable to work. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit. HORTON STREETS, 225 BRIGHTON ST., S. RAPHAEL, 67 East 120th St., City.

THE NUGGET.

DALHONAGA, JANUARY 3, 1902.

A happy New Year to all.

The days are getting longer by a minute or so every day.

V. R. Hix has gone down to Price, Ga., to take charge of a school.

Get a move on you now if you wish to keep up with Dahlonaga as soon as spring opens.

Mr. Ashley, who has been minding the bed of the Chestatee river for good, went to his home at Toledo, O., to spend the holidays.

It is no trouble for some woman to marry. There is one in Dahlonaga now who has two living husbands. The first one lives within seventy-five miles of her and the other with her. Nothing like women having plenty of husbands even if some of them are a little angly.

The Christmas fines were small, amounting only to ten dollars and cost, as follows: Ollie Jones, Charlie Roberts and Charlie Rice were fined three and cost each, and W. O. Childers one and cost. The first three for fighting and the latter for taking on too much Porina.

We are told that they had a Christmas tree down at Auraria where all were remembered, even the bachelors and old maids. Some got rag dolls, some one thing and some another. The preacher, Mr. Higgins, got a nice large potato trimmed with holly leaves. The presents for the little folks caused much pleasure, and those for the big ones created a great deal of fun.

While Dr. Cavender and his lady were in Dahlonaga this week, visiting relatives, the Doctor paid the Nugget office a visit. We not acquainted with this gentleman many years ago when he used to attend the N. G. A. College here and it is always a pleasure for us to meet him. He resides in Hall county now but keeps posted about Dahlonaga through the columns of the Nugget.

The mayor and three new aldermen were elected on the third Saturday in December without any opposition, each receiving ninety-two votes, who will take the oath of office next Monday night—being R. H. Baker, Mayor; aldermen, Prof. J. W. Boyd, J. E. McGee and F. G. Jones. And the aldermen holding over are: Dr. C. H. Jones, O. J. Lilly and T. F. Jackson. Those going out are Mayor W. P. Price, aldermen H. G. Ingersoll, E. E. Crisson and G. H. McGuire. The new council is composed of up to date, wide awake business men and if any of them fail to do their duty we will be greatly surprised.

The froshet swept away Jim Ash's grist mill and dam up on Yahoola Sunday morning, and lower down on the same stream a portion of the Consolidated Co's dam was carried off, leaving the Hand mill and works, with no water except a small amount caught by the canal lower down. And the mill race out at Jay, also belonging to the same company was torn away by the swollen surging waters of the Hightower river. The county lost two bridges—the one across the river at Jay and Cane Creek bridge. The pillars at one end of the new bridge at Neisler's ford have given way so that the bridge is impassible. The contractors, Donaldson and Stringer, are the losers as they insured the work to stand. The rain was certainly a heavy one and did much damage in various ways throughout the county. The contract for the rebuilding of the Cane Creek bridge has already been let out. W. J. Loveloss does the rock work for $245. And J. D. Southard and W. H. C. Tate complete the wood work for $230, and it will be rebuilt as soon as the work can possibly be done.

R. C. Meaders, lady and little girl have gone down to Swainsboro on a visit to relatives.

E. W. Strickland spent the holidays with his two sons down at Swainsboro, Ga., being the first Christmas he has been away from home in five years.

The young men of Nimbrowll district enjoyed themselves at two shooting matches at W. E. Wells & Bro. during the holidays. Everything went off quietly.

Prof. West, who graduated at the N. G. A. College last June, came back to see his numerous friends and spend a portion of Christmas day among those he had been with for four years.

Several of the boys got hold of some poison liquor before Christmas that came near killing them, causing them to be strictly sober Christmas day and looked as if they had been to the Keeley Institute.

Out at John Adams' on Christmas evening the people in his community, called Last Chance, had a nice Christmas tree, well laden with beautiful presents causing joy, happiness and bright smiles among all their children.

Mrs. C. A. J. Head has been seriously sick for some time and is not expected to live unless a change takes place. Mrs. Head has already lived out her allotted time but we trust that she will recover and live many more years.

The Sunday School of Nimbrowll district had another box supper on Christmas eve night. There being five girls nominated for the cake Miss Belle Waters was the successful winner. Proceeds of same realized $47.20. Cake bringing $38.20.

While a little Wehant boy was in town before Christmas the explosion of fire crackers scared his mule, throwing the rider and besides injuring him broke the boys gun with which he was expecting to hunt with on Christmas day no doubt.

On Christmas day quite a number of our citizens enjoyed themselves out a piece from town shooting at clay pigeons. James Tate proved himself to be the best shot out of several. Then he and G. H. McGuire tried a few shots alone and McGuire came out winner.

We thought that we had a heavy rain and much damage in this county but it was only a sprinkle compared with that in the lower part of the country, causing washouts on railroads and damage to other property along the large streams amounting to thousands and thousands of dollars—lives in some instances were lost. Oh, it was terrible.

Deputy Marshal Grizzle went out into Wahoo district on Christmas eve and arrested Marion Turner Rufe Reese and H. Taylor in an illicit distillery, which interfered with their drams as well as patrons, on account of the prisoners having to remain in jail here until Deputy Collector Richardson could come up and swear out warrants against them before they could even be tried.

F. C. Stamey, in having his paper changed to Atlanta says: I would like to get it in time to read it Christmas, for I had rather read it than to go to the theater." And G. H. Bremer, of Countersport, Pa., in renewing his subscription adds: "Do not let the paper stop coming as I want every one." This is an evident fact that the Nugget is read with interest both far and near.

John Wilkins of Chestatee district was in town Monday and informed us that he had lived on Jim Ravans place for 24 years, raised a family and had grand children, and further stated that he expected to stay there the rest of his life. Can any other person say that they have remained on rented land at one place this long? Mr. Wilkins is a great worker and no doubt has made enough on this farm to buy it, but preferred to rent.

W. J. Barts saw mill was washed away last Sunday.

Judge Huff issued 34 marriage licenses for the year just closed.

Mrs. M. Cain and her daughter, Miss Manda, have just returned from Jesup, Ga.

Every subscriber's attention is called to the ruling of the postoffice officials elsewhere.

W. T. Townsend, a student of the college has taken charge of the dormitory, in place of Mr. Davidson.

Gen. Warner left for the north this week. Of course on business, for he never makes any pleasure trips.

The students and faculty, after taking Christmas are back at their post and places again in the college building.

Dr. H. C. Wheelchel leaves next week for New York where he goes to take a post graduate course for a couple of months.

All owing E. E. Crisson either by note or account are requested to come forward and settle the same at once.

J. N. DuPre took his departure for Gainesville this week where he goes to join his family who left a short time ago.

We are requested to say that Judge Huff has received all the Confederate pension blanks for this county, both soldiers and widows.

Now the holidays are over and liquor is about gone all will have to fall back on temperance drinks until the candidates commence treating.

N. H. Satterfield and family, after living in this county all their lives, moved to Gainesville a few days ago to make that place their permanent home.

Jack Rider, of Jones' creek district went hunting last Friday and has not been heard of since. At last accounts there were 50 or 75 men in search of him.

The permanent survey of the Gainesville and Dahlonaga Electric Railroad between Dahlonaga and New Bridge is now being made. When this is completed work will begin on this end of the line.

Although it was feared that Prof. Martin and his assistants, after spending Christmas at home would not be able to reach here and open out the public school on account of the railroad washouts, but they did, and the many pupils have resumed their studies as usual.

The editor's better half is some hog raiser herself. Three hogs killed just before Christmas weighed 800 pounds, and the land brought the scales down to the 140 pound mark. Can any lady in Georgia beat raising this amount of meat? Why say that it is cheaper to buy meat than to raise it any longer?

The gold ore case between J. W. Adams and J. B. Witt has not been settled yet, on account of Capt. Hall, one of the arbitrators, dying before the matter was disposed of. Col. Baker and Col. Charters have been proposed as new arbitrators by Mr. Adams to settle the matter but we understand that Col. Baker refuses to serve.

The apple crop of this section was very fine last year and commanded very fair prices considering that we have no railroad facilities. It costs too much to ship them now, although a gentleman of Dahlonaga shipped twelve bushels down to Oxford, Ga., to a relative where apples sold at 60 cents per peck. We will have more to say about fruits next week.

The other day when we saw a negro girl going from store to store wearing specks we thought it was on account of pride, but later on she dropped into one where we were standing and called for some jugwags. We soon found when she carefully peeped into each vessel that it was for the purpose of getting a jug with a smooth interior, it being the kind she said she was sent for.

Have you got your resolutions for the New Year fixed up yet?

Christmas of 1901 has come and gone and as usual brought both trouble and happiness.

G. C. Wallace lost a nice ham a few nights ago which is an evident fact that the thieves are not all dead here yet.

A great many things for Dahlonaga's welfare will develop long before the present year closes. Mark this prediction.

The several Christmas trees in Dahlonaga, colored included, were nice and attractive making many a little child's heart leap with joy.

If you want a Hix Almanac for the present year you had better come before they are all gone. A few more of them left at this office for 25 cents.

Mrs. Joe England, who resided near the Barlow Mine, died on the 20th ult., thus causing the husbands household to be a sad one during Christmas.

Day before Christmas Homer McKee had his knee and leg badly hurt by the explosion of a can of powder he was touching off by a fuse, which may result in a stiff knee joint.

Prof. Harry Gurley, who has been in charge of the military department of a school in lower Georgia for some time, came up to spend Christmas with the "old folks at home."

A gentleman, who is on the "inside track" and knows all that is being mapped out for Dahlonaga's good, remarked the other day that we would soon have one of the best places in upper Georgia.

It may surprise many of you when we tell you that Dahlonaga is going to have a sash, blind and door factory before a great while. We will tell you more about it later on when the thing gets "ripe."

A stranger wouldn't have supposed that we had a temperance society in Dahlonaga Christmas. There was much drinking. One man got so full out in the edge of town that he had to be carried home on his brother's shoulder like a sack of guano.

A few days before Christmas it was cold enough to freeze up the Crown Mountain power plant for a day or so. Then the weather moderated and it was almost like spring. Christmas was a lovely day, giving everybody a chance to enjoy themselves who wished to.

If you wish your children to secure a good collegiate education, send them to Dahlonaga. The N. G. A. College is a branch of the State University and is no second hand college in the least. It has an able corps of teachers and is well equipped with every thing necessary for the conduction of a first class college.

There are several applicants for city marshal's place, election to comes off Monday night, being the following persons, so we understand, to-wit: J. V. Harbison the present marshal, Geo. Jenkins, Joseph Ricketts, W. J. Hightower, J. B. Anderson, and others. Who the lucky man will be we cannot say as none of the members of the council have expressed themselves.

Hon. G. D. Bruce, after winding up his legislative duties some days ago, has returned to his place of business and is now turning out many nice pictures for his numerous customers. Mr. Bruce is a fine photographer and his work cannot be excelled for neatness in Georgia. Call and see him when needing any first class work done. He also has on hand a lot of mining and other views for sale.

By all means let our city fathers appoint a night watch for the purpose of looking after fire, for the next three months. We have no fire department here and the only way to save the town is for a fire to be discovered when it first breaks out. And the only way to do this is to have a man for this purpose. It will cost less than one hundred dollars, and who cares for this when there is so much at stake?

A few days before Christmas Miss Martha Crow was wedded to Mr. Wesley Dowdy. Both of this county.

Mrs. Owens, for whom there is a warrant against her for selling liquor, slipped in last Tuesday night and carried away her three children that were living with their father.

Several parties in Dahlonaga were very much surprised Christmas eve when their liquor, ordered from Atlanta failed to come, causing some to fall back on Porina until the supply was exhausted.

So far the Presbyterian preacher is the only minister in charge of a church in town that has subscribed for the Nugget this year. Thank you. We are going according to the new golden rule this year—help those that help us.

W. J. Burt, who has resided at Bartsboro for a number of years and improved that part of the county so much, causing the valuation of the taxable property of that district to increase several thousand dollars, is selling out for the purpose of locating at Decatur Ga. and thus Lumpkin county loses one of her most industrious and enterprising citizens.

The pay roll for the Gainesville and Dahlonaga Railway for the month of November was $5,000. The next pay day comes off on the 15th inst., which will not amount to this much on account of the hands being unable to get in as good time owing to a great deal of inclement weather. Doesn't this look like business? At an early day work will begin on this end of the line, so we are informed by one of the directors.

On Christmas day Seth Duncan, of Pickens county was arrested for disorderly conduct and lodged in the calaboose. And as it was reported here that he had stabbed some man at home before he left he was transferred from the calaboose to the jail and the authorities of Pickens county notified of his arrest by phone, but upon failing to receive any reply Seth was discharged after paying his council at five here and went on his way rejoicing.

As before stated, the late grand jury of Lumpkin county recommended that the tax receiver take no more wild land returns for less than 50 cents per acre. At the same time certain property holders, whose names appear on the regular digest were raised and so marked on the book but the body in preparing its presentments neglected to mention the latter assessment in said presentments, which, owing to this oversight, has no effect and therefore cannot be collected.

Geo. Duff, who was hit on the head with a rock by Matthew Armstrong some days before Christmas, was in town the other day with the wound all healed up and his head as sound as ever. Some of Dahlonaga's prominent men had gone over on the river to secure some of Tom Sain's fine brandy. The keg held thirteen gallons and George did the measuring, and the scent of all this brandy and drinking some too, caused him to lose his knowledge, thus not knowing a friend from an enemy. All the rest also got "how come you so" too returning home, in their hack swaying to an fro, causing the vehicle to rock like a vessel.

In a Northern city the other day a lady opened her mouth so wide that it required three physicians six hours to get it so she could shut it and work her jaws at will. This was a dance. Now there are women in Dahlonaga who enjoy tattling that should take warning. For some of these days when they get their mouths in full speed talking about their neighbors the jaws might refuse to act, leaving their mouths wide open and cause them to die of grief because they could not talk about people any longer, some spreading them on a subject like this so wide that the most skilled physicians in the land would be unable to render any assistance.

Charlie Moore is now doing business for John H. Moore.

The number of tax fi. fas. last year for Lumpkin county was about 125. The least number for many years.

The lands in the cuts at Crown Mountain are now working by the light of large brilliant arch electric lamps.

T. A. Christy, a former resident of Dahlonaga, is up on a visit to his relatives for the first time in several years.

The number of cases on the mayors docket for 1901 is 98. And for the year previous 168, showing a decided decrease in the business of the mayor's court.

So far there is no scarlet fever in Dahlonaga except at Charlie McAfees. His little girl, who first had it, is about well and another one of his children and his wife are taking it. Extra precaution is being taken by the authorities to prevent its spreading, causing but little uneasiness.

Bob Payne's family, out in the country, have all recovered from the small pox and they are allowed to go where they choose now. It broke out in the family of one of his neighbors, Henry Odum recently and the city authorities quarantined against it. The people in that community are very cautious and doubtless it will soon beat an end in this county.

The city finance committee of the council is busy preparing its report for 1901. Although there has been quite a number of fines imposed they were generally so light that they failed to pay the cost of the marshal and mayor. For instance where a fine is only $1.00 the mayor and marshals cost each is $2.00, which has to come out of the treasury when worked out or the defendant runs away.

On Monday afternoon before Christmas Lewis Prewitt and Luther Walker had a fight. Luther cut Lewis three times in the back, and west Walker, Luther's father, shot a gun and the load went into the wall of J. E. McGees store near where the fight was taking place on the porch. One gash went to the hollow and it was considered very dangerous for a while and Luther and his father were held in prison until the Friday following before they were given a hearing by Squire Worley. At that time Prewitt began to improve and the two waived examination and were bound over to the Superior Court for an assault with intent to murder—Luther's bond being fixed at $800 and his fathers $600, which the latter soon made and was out among his friends endeavoring to secure his sons bond. There has been bad blood between the three for some time and it was shown at the trial of the council that Prewitt had made some ugly remarks about Luther during the day more than once. Luther and Prewitt met in Mr. McGee's store where Prewitt again said something about a hound dog, supposed to be referring to Luther. The two passed out at the door and eye witnesses state that Prewitt caught hold of Luther and invited him out a piece where he would give him a good whipping. Luther replying if he would leave his pistol he would go with him anywhere. So one word brought on another until Luther commenced cutting Prewitt. Luther's father standing close by, struck Prewitt over the head and shoulder with a rim and it fired. Some say that the gun fired first, before the stroke was made and others say that it was discharged afterwards. We don't no about this. Only giving the report of the affair as told us. Prewitt then ran into the store with pistol in hand, with Luther behind holding both of Prewitts arms evidently afraid that he would shoot him, for he told those in the store if they didn't take the pistol away from Prewitt that he would kill him, and would quit when they did. Prewitt was relieved of the pistol and Luther did as he promised and the vow ended. It was an unfortunate affair, one that we all regret very much. Luther—Luther gave bond Wednesday.

The Education Needed.

The education which the negro needs is industrial education. Educated or trained labor is worth more than ignorant and stupid labor, even in ditch-digging. Trained industrial labor is what the South needs. The fewest negroes can be educated beyond this. The education many of them are now receiving, or have received, serves only to make them more worthless, because it leads them to despise and avoid manual labor. Too many white boys and girls are ruined by the same process. Industrial education, manual training—this is what the South needs. It is what the South must have if it is to keep pace with the upward march. Those who urge the great need and importance of education in the South, of educating the black race as well as the white along rational lines, are not in the remotest sense or degree advocating admixture or social equality of the races.—Nashville American.

Last January Mrs. Williams Higley of Wabash, Ind., was in imminent danger of drowning in a creek. Her husband offered $1,000 to two men if they would save her. The two men rushed into the creek at the peril of their lives, and brought the woman out. Then the husband refused to make good his offer. He said the price was exorbitant and more than he could afford. The rescuers brought suit at law for the reward. The case was tried before a jury and the plaintiffs awarded the full amount of their claim. Then Higley transferred his property, and in various ways sought to evade the $1,000 for the life of his wife. A few days ago, however, the parties to the suit effected a compromise whereby the rescuers received $225 each.

A Parkersburg, W. Va., dispatch says: A big blacksnake, which was sunning itself near a clump of blackberry bushes, was killed the other day by Ira Beckwith. It measured five feet. One part of its body was swollen, the lump being very hard. Beckwith cut the snake open, and found inside a china nest egg, which it had evidently swallowed while robbing some hen's nests. A neighbor identified the article by certain scratches and bumps as one which had disappeared two years ago. It is supposed that the snake, unable either to digest or expel the egg, had carried it around for two years. The skin, at that point where the egg was found, was worn almost through.

George Adams, a miner living at Shamer, at McKeesport, Pa., has received a bequest of $5,000 in return for kindness to a stranger. A cold winter's night, ten years ago, Adams was called to his door and found a stranger almost famished. He took him in, fed him and gave him food and a place to sleep. The next morning the stranger, who gave his name as David Craig, was too ill to travel. Adams and his wife nursed him for two weeks. Then he regained his health and left. They never heard of him again until last Monday, when Adams received a letter from a Denver attorney informing him that Craig had died in that city leaving a large amount of property. In his will he bequeathed $5,000 to Adams and his wife.

One of the biggest Tom Fool measures says the Bainbridge Searchlight, which has been introduced during the present session of the general assembly is one by Representative Miller, to prohibit the attendance upon the public schools by children whose fathers who have failed to pay poll tax. If we understand the true mission of the public school system, it is to offer advantages to children whose parents for any cause fail to give them an education. The failure of the parents to perform his duty should not rob the child of the advantages of the school room. Such legislation would not only be unfair to the child, but is too narrow and too puny for a broad minded set of men to consider.

A Garden in a Cave.

General J. B. Briggs of Russellville, Ky., some years ago bought a cave near Glasgow Junction where there is an even temperature of 50 degrees. In that cave he has been storing, awaiting good markets, his crop of oranges and lemons from his Florida groves. He has determined to turn his cave into a great subterranean garden, giving special attention to the growing of mushrooms there. He is quoted as follows concerning his plan, which has gone beyond the experimental stage: "The scheme of raising mushrooms by me is no longer an experiment, the test has been made, and it will soon be prepared to furnish mushrooms for the entire United States the year round. I have already made several large shipments East with satisfactory results. I have made several contracts with four of Louisville's largest hotels to furnish them large quantities of the product. Mushrooms sell by the pound, and bring good remuneration. Domestic mushrooms are the best to be had. The mushrooms that are served at the hotels in his country are known as the button or bud mushroom. They are all grown in the catacombs of Paris, canned and shipped over here, they are inclined to be tough, while the domestic product is much tenderer."

"Big Jim" Parker, who is alleged to have knuckled down the assassin of President McKinley at Buffalo, is to get a Christmas present of a federal appointment, it is announced. Parker is in Washington, and the appointment will be made at once. Just the nature of the good thing he is to have has not been made public. Parker says that about the only regret he has is that when he fled Czolgosz he did not bite off an ear or a finger, to furnish positive evidence of the part he took in the incident.—Savannah News.

The U. S. grand jury at Jacksonville returned a true bill against Helen Post for devising schemes and artifices to defraud persons under false and fraudulent pretenses on her part, representing that she possessed the power of mental science, or mind cure, to cure all forms of diseases and weaknesses, for which she received money. Her husband and sons-in-law were both indicted in Macon last month. They have grown rich by deception and are able to pay out.

Beyond this beautiful and rippling stream, just over the grassy knoll, there blossoms a rare and richly tinted flower. They tell us that it may have blossomed to life at the touch of an angel's kiss, and caught its rosy flush from a burning star.

Beyond the pathless mountains that lift their blue peaks in the fading distance they tell us there is a charming valley that drinks the diamond dew of morning and bathes in the liquid sun-beams, clad in a verdure of everlasting green and dotted all over with flowers of every hue and shade.

Beyond the blue waves of the pathless ocean they tell us there is a clime from which the mellow sunlight of spring never departs, that it is laden with the songs of birds of note and plumage, and peace, ease and plenty rule the lives of the people that never heard of war or pestilence.

Beyond the curtain of darkness that hangs over the gloomy night there dwells a picture of morning, a picture of fresh new life—that seems to wake and move and breathe away the mists, and they tell us its foreground is hope and its background is pleasure.

Beyond the aches and struggles, the fears, the disappointments, the bitter trials and wearing labors of Time, we are taught, is an Eternity whose higher possibilities give promise to calmer hours and sweeter rest.—Ex.

has about completed his annual returns of quartermaster's and ordnance stores to the United States government. Under the head of quartermaster's stores he has accounted for 3,291 uniforms, 5,100 hats, 5,700 leggings, 4,800 pouches, 432 common tents, 46 conical tents 10 hospital tents, 410 shelter tents 170 wall tents. There are other minor properties that have been received from the government, but the foregoing are the main items, including all such stores the state has been supplied with since 1887. The returns of ordnance stores show the following on hand: Three Gatling guns, 2,300 Springfield rifles, 892 saddles, 3,411 blanket bags, 4,383 web belts, 4,172 canteens and two breechloading steel 3.2-inch rifles with canteens, etc.—Constitution.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JAN. 10, 1902.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

For the second time since 1808 congress is composed entirely of white men.

The time is near at hand for candidates for county offices to begin to speak out.

Georgia had two hangings last Friday. John Robinson at Sylva and Earnest Outland at Dublin.

B. H. Parks, better known here as Bartow Parks, has been elected chief of police of Gainesville.

One hundred families of Chattanooga had to flee from their homes one night last week and camp on the hills as the result of high water.

A row occurred in Bethlehem negro church in Atlanta Friday night in which a pistol, knife and stick was about to be used when the police appeared.

This is a year of politics. Won't it be a lively time? There will be an abundance of free whiskey and temperance societies will move slowly until it is all over.

The Supreme Court has decided that the Howell resolution is constitutional and must stand. The state will now be able to meet its financial obligations promptly.

Died in Chicago, December 15th at the residence of her father, 738 Fullerton Avenue, Anna Huntington Van Pelt, eldest daughter of George H. and Anna C. Van Pelt.

A terrible explosion of the boiler of a Central Georgia railway engine occurred one day last week in Macon, killing five men and seriously injuring many. The shock was felt for 12 miles away.

Big white headed cabbage are still being hauled in by some of our mountain farmers which are purchased and retail at two cents a pound. Oh, what a great country this is, where we can sit down and eat cabbage and green apple pie in January.

A disagreement among the owners of the Gainesville Eagle has caused H. H. Dean, Guy Clopton and Mrs. Ida Clopton to file a petition in the clerk's office of Hall county asking that it be sold by three discreet persons or petitioners.

In a head end collision on the Southern near Rex, Ga., Saturday night three men were burned to death and thirty freight cars destroyed. Those killed are engineer C. C. Wallace, of Atlanta, flagman J. H. Harris, of Jacksonville, and fireman Prater. A misunderstanding caused the wreck.

The Nugget has failed to see any objections to Estill being governor of Georgia except by some one who wants the office. His ability has never been doubted in the least even by his most bitter political enemies. He is a good financier and would be a safe man to put in charge of the state's affairs.

The free school system keeps a department at the capitol and a department at every court house in Georgia for which the people pay—this is free schools under delusion. When we add to these expenses the cost of books under the "free" manipulation and once get the people to see the fraud there will be no delusion—there will be a holy uprising against the system.—Sarge's Plunkets Weekly.

Bill Arp takes occasion to announce in the Atlanta Constitution that such editors as the one running the Constitution at Monticello Fla. is a fraud because many poor women have begged or borrowed the $25 when they could not get the subscribers, and made up a list from their acquaintances and sent the list and money off and received nothing in return. Some of the ladies of Dahlonega have been duped by this paper man to their sorrow.

Mining Notes.

The Roberts mill on the Gordon property keeps running on full time giving satisfactory results.

Work in the long tunnel at the Findley was suspended last week and nothing is being done at this mine now.

The clean up last week down on lot 810 on their little mill after a five days run was sixteen and one-half ounces in the amalgam.

The lumber for the new ten stamp mill down at the Betz mine has already been ordered and as soon as it is received work will begin.

The number of hands engaged at the Gorge plant is 25, who are making a big show considering the unfavorable weather we have at this season of the year.

We see from the Cleveland Courier that work has been resumed at the Loid mine in White county and preparations are being made to put in a lot of new machinery.

Prof. L. J. Boyd informs us that a portion of the machinery for operating Cayender's Creek gold mine is expected to arrive at an early date and that work will begin on a large scale for the extraction of gold from the hundreds of veins located on the several thousand acres of lands just recently changed hands. It is a big mining proposition and will be of vast importance to Lumpkin county and beneficial to every resident of the same.

It was asserted last summer by some of the members of the Consolidated Co. that the Hix gold saving process would be introduced here in a month or so from that time, but their intentions have not been carried out and we have no idea that they will. Only one of the things has been manufactured and it is still at Ft. Wayne, Indiana, where it was first located for a test. They have either lost the pattern or the invention is no good. However we don't care, because the fewer of these so called savers we have here the better it is for both the investors and the country at large.

Work is still progressing down at the Hand fly a few laborers, taking out ore and crushing it by a portion of the stamps of the big mill. Latter part of last year Mr. Breyman, president of the Consolidated Co., with his own money, put in a machine of his invention for the saving of fine gold lost from the mill as an experiment, which satisfied him very well with the exceptions of its flouring the quick. Since that time he has ordered a much larger one which is being received, and by different appliances to that of the small one hopes to be able to prevent this quick trouble. Although we have but little confidence in this method of gold saving on account of so many experiments being a failure, we trust that Mr. Breyman will succeed for he has made a big investment here and we want him to get something in return for his faithful work and outlay of money.

The other morning before day in casting our eyes over towards those beautiful arch lamps on Crown Mountain and listening to the rattling of the stamp mill and the roaring of the Huntingtons we wondered what those miners would say who used to use the long tom and mortar and pestle here upon the first discovery of gold in this country, could they rise up from the grave and see men working in cages by large glittering lamps fastened to a pole making it as bright as day, with giants in hand tearing up the ground, roots and stumps with large streams of water pumped up on the mountain from the Chestatee river, and washing down the saprolite ore to three machines running like grist mills with a capacity of 1200 tons every 24 hours, and the hard ore dumped off and moved in by machinery to 60 stamps able to beat 300 tons in the same length of time. However strange to them it would seem this is what is going on at the Crown Mountain mine. In addition to this propositions are being made to sink the shaft on the rich Wallace vein.

FROM OUR AURARIA CORRESPONDENT.

Mining is on a boom here now and one that is going to last. N. C. Tankosky is foreman at the Briar Patch who has about 15 hands at work. Every thing is showing up to the Queen's taste. "Old Bony," as we all call him, is also foreman of the Tanner property. At this place they have struck it rich close to the line of the Stegall property.

J. T. Miller, general manager of the Briar Patch, is out on the move all the time.

Operations at the Betz are moving right along.

Bruce at Whim Hill is still opening up. Strickland Bros. will be on the ground in a few days and commence going down on the Whim Hill chute.

INDORSED BY MERCHANTS.

Retail Association's Resolutions on Col. Estill's Candidacy.

The Retail Merchants Association comprising practically all of the retail merchants of Savannah, has indorsed Col. J. H. Estill for Governor.

At a special meeting of the association the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that this association heartily indorse the candidacy of Col. J. H. Estill of our city for the honorable office of Governor of this state.

Resolved, that this association fully recognizes and thoroughly appreciates the ability, worth and individuality of Col. J. H. Estill, and takes this method of declaring their confidence in him to fill this high office, not only with ability and honor to himself, but with credit, justice, wisdom and moderation, to call the citizens of this great commonwealth.

Resolved further, that in thus proclaiming our indorsement of our fellow-citizen and townsman, we would urge every voter who has the interest of this state at heart to cast his ballot for Col. J. H. Estill, feel assured that thereby the welfare of all classes and the best interest of every citizen will be secured.

Rider, who was mentioned in our last issue as being lost some days ago after starting out on a hunt has been found. He was at a certain house in the mountains taking Christmas.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmaleone received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was always a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. Bund Israel, New York, Jan. 3, 1901. DR. TAIT BROS. MEDICINE CO., Gentlemen: Your Asthmaleone is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful. After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthmaleone contains no opium, morphine, chlorform or ether. Very truly yours, REV. DR. MORRIS WECHELER.

DR. TAIT BROS. MEDICINE CO. AVON SPRINGS, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1901. Gentlemen: I write this testimony from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmaleone for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic Asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th Street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmaleone. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease. Yours respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

DR. TAIT BROS. MEDICINE CO. Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I have now your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have now purchased your full size bottle, and I am very grateful. I have family of four children and for six years was unable to work. This testimony you can make full use of as you see fit. Home address: 130th Street, New York City. S. RAPHAEL, 67 East 120th St., City.

TRIAL BOTTLE ABSOLUTELY SENT FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

Do not delay. Write at once, addressing DR. TAIT BROS. MEDICINE CO., 79 East 130th Street, N. Y. City.

THE NUGGET

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 20, 1902.

Green apples retail eighty-five cents in Dahlonega.

The country school teachers have resumed their work again.

Rev. Sam Small will lecture at the college chapel to-morrow night (Saturday).

Clerk John Moore killed a thirteen-months old hog the other day weighing 292.

J. A. Whitener, of Atlanta, has purchased the Cain farm near Porter Springs.

Judge Huff will have to borrow from $1,000 to 15,000 to run the county till fall.

Judge Huff has been quite busy for several days filling out the pension blanks for Confederate soldiers and widows.

All owing E. E. Crisson either by note or account are requested to come forward and settle the same at once.

J. B. Duckett, of Porter Springs, is opening out a store here in the McGee old stand to be in charge of his son Dock.

T. M. Davis, son of "Choctaw" Davis, was here on a visit during the holidays from Texas where he has been for several years.

J. B. Waters of Randa, although having nearly reached his three score years and ten, went out the other day with his boys and killed 24 rabbits and it wasn't much of a day for rabbits either.

Some days ago the little four-year-old girl of Gus Hyden, who resides in the lower part of the county, was badly burned by her clothing catching a fire while standing before the fire place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holeman, of Poplar Springs, have lost their twin babies this week. One died on Monday and the other died Wednesday and both were buried in the same grave at the same time.

M. G. Head was appointed receiver of the Matthews' drug store at this place last Friday. Mr. Matthews had become involved and was selling out at and below cost when stopped by authority of Judge Estes.

Your attention is called to the ad. of Prof. L. J. Boyd appearing in this issue, who makes the announcement that he is thoroughly equipped with every thing necessary to give correct values of ores at Cavender's Creek, four miles from Dahlonega.

Jay bridge, which was washed away some days ago during the freshet, will not be rebuilt, so we are informed by Judge Huff. There being no postoffice at that place and but little passing the ford can accommodate all that wish to cross the Hightower river at Jay now, except school children, and a log can be put across the stream for their use.

Alexander Awtry died in Wasahoo district on Tuesday morning of last week after an illness of about three weeks, aged 75 or 80. He was an old Confederate pensioner and his papers were fixed up the day before he died so that he might be able to draw again but the angel of death came along and transferred him to that unknown world where pensions are not needed.

Prof. L. J. Boyd, of Cavender's Creek mine gave us a pleasant call last Friday. The Professor has been located at that place for some time, thoroughly testing the property by assays, until it changed hands a few days ago. But the gentleman is not going to leave. He has just purchased a house and lot and settled down for business right. The Professor is very much delighted with the place much more now than heretofore on account of the advent of a pretty bright eyed little boy which made its appearance at his house a while before Christmas to comfort him and his good lady at their beautiful home in the mountains.

The railroad surveyors generally spend Sunday in Dahlonega.

J. F. Moore, after spending several days in Gainesville, Atlanta and Rome has returned home.

Both corn and meal have been very scarce in Dahlonega for several days. At times the market has been entirely out of either.

The washing away and damage to bridges recently makes its very inconvenient for some of the farmers to reach Dahlonega with their produce.

Mr. Ashley, after returning from the north was in the city last Saturday for a short while. From here he went to Dawson county where he is building a dredge boat.

School Commissioner Seabolt killed two porkers the other day weighing three hundred each. Oh, how nice it is to have plenty of home raised pork in a family.

Jake Howell of Dalton, who not long ago was one of Dahlonega's little knee breeches boys came on a visit to relatives in Dahlonega this week and is now almost a young man.

The lowest tax bill, issued in this county on the 20th of December for years is an evident fact that times are more prosperous than usual, else more people would be behind with their taxes.

During the Christmas holidays Will Palmer and Frank Rider locked horns over the river, and next Saturday Will is to be tried for assault and battery by Squire Worley at Dahlonega.

Just as long as one man builds the pillars and another the bridge there will always be trouble about those damaged by the freshets in this county. The pillars are the main thing and when they give way, even if a contractor is under a seven or eight hundred dollar bond, and the bridge is damaged all over this is the county's loss.

Dr. Whelchel left for New York last Sunday afternoon, a little earlier than he expected. He will spend a little time in Washington City with Hon. F. C. Tate and other friends there. Then he will depart for the great city of New York where he will spend a couple of months in better posting himself in the medical science, as stated last week.

We are just in receipt of the new book issued by the commissioner of agriculture called "Georgia: Historical and Industrial," which contains more than 900 pages of most valuable information concerning our state and its resources, its material interests, developed and undeveloped. It is the most complete document of the kind we ever read and will be worth millions of dollars to Georgia.

Warren Whelchel, who left this country six or seven years ago for the west is back on a visit to relatives. Warren gives a glowing description of the country—Oklahoma Territory, where he is at. When the season is right he craves 5000 bushels of corn, but last year it was too dry to do any good. We wouldn't swap this country for any in the west. Something is made here each year, and this cannot be said of the west.

Some nights ago a certain woman, after taking on too much mountain dew fell by the way side in a pile of leaves in the outskirts of Dahlonega. Soon thereafter two young men, hearing of the unfortunate woman's condition went and carried her to a friends house close by. It was an interesting sight not often seen to witness two parties of about 125 pounds each lugging a large woman weighing near two hundred pounds as limber as a dish rag. But it was done and after some time passed she opened her sweet little eyes and looking about her escorts in the face began singing: "Sweet birds and sweet prospects and sweet flowers have all lost their sweetness but me." They arose and after singing a verse of "Good by my honey, I'm gone," both passed out at the door and went home to dream pleasant dreams.

Gen. Warner left here the other day with the intention of going north but returned this week without having made the trip. He will go later on.

The kerb of one or maybe both the public wells are dangerously rotten and should receive attention before some Peruna drinker in search of water falls through them.

Work is progressing on the railroad as usual. About fifty hands are continuously at work on the dam of the electric plant across Chestatee river. All that can be worked to an advantage.

We stated last week that the fines imposed by the mayor didn't pay the cost of the mayor and marshal, but those made by the mayor pro tem caused this department to pay its way and make things more interesting, financially speaking.

At the next term of Lumpkin Superior Court three vacancies occur on the county board of education on account of the expiration of the terms of the following members to-wit: John Hutchison, J. K. Bearden and R. N. Mays.

It has gotten to be a frequent occurrence for certain thieves to visit our citizens chicken roosts and carry off the "fatted hens." We heard one give the squall last Saturday night at 12:30. Some of these nights they will be filled full of buckshot while doing this and then everybody will know who it is.

One old negro who sold blockade liquor here got scared and left out for his home in Clarkesville, Ga. He was speaking of getting his church letter and moving to Dahlonega but when the revenue officers got to picking up some close by engaged in the same business Uncle George departed and his membership will still remain in the Clarkesville church.

The Presbyterian people and preacher desire to express their sincere thanks to those warm hearted and generous friends both in and out of Dahlonega who have aided in raising the mortgage that was on the church, also to those who have contributed to the bell fund. Forty dollars are contributed to this fund, and they hope to get thirty more before ordering.

The biggest free supper ever given in Dahlonega by a colored person was enjoyed by those of her race at Aunt Mary Stevens' last Sunday evening. Nearly all the negro women, men and children were there except Abraham Anderson. He received an invitation and not being able to read nor understand what it meant threw the note down with a grunt remarking, "Iz not gwine to any dance on Sunday night. De police would git me."

Tuesday morning just before day while decending the steps in search of some wood, we stepped into a full bucket of water left there the evening before by the office devil while washing the forms. Through a thin crust of ice and down to the bottom of the bucket one foot went before we could jerk it out. It is useless to say that right on these steps we broke one of our New Year's resolutions, for it is a very serious matter for a country editor to get his feet wet.

The pauper's home of this county has been sold by the committee appointed by the grand jury at the last term of the Superior Court. Calvin Jackson was the purchaser who gave $400. It first cost the county $900, but wasn't worth it then nor at any time since. Mr. Jackson has contracted to take care of the inmates this year for $5.00 per month each, bedding and wearing apparel to be supplied by the county. It may be that no other farm will be purchased. The management of the paupers' farm has been a very expensive business here since it was established, and just as long as such suitable arrangements as this one just entered into can be made, we would not favor the purchasing of a farm at any time.

Tom Ray is speaking of being before the people for sheriff of this county.

John Stringer, of Grace, anticipates selling out and going to Oklahoma Territory about the first of February.

Miss Sue Davis, formerly of this county, is back on a visit from the west after an absence of some four or five years.

Miss Ella Ricketts and Mr. Piercan Edmonson were wedded in Dahlonega last Sunday evening by Esquire W. J. Worley.

Only a few miles from Dahlonega in Davis' district quite a number of cattle have recently died of the distemper. "Pony" Crow has lost three head.

Those who have seen Miss Hix in the mountains who is wanted for murder in Banks county, say that she does not only wear breeches but carries two pistols in a very convenient manner to get to if needed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cain, the oldest lady in Lumpkin county, died near Porter Springs last Monday night aged 100 the 28th of last July. She was a good christian hearted old lady having been a strict member of the M. E. church for 80 odd years.

The pillars of the new bridge across the Chestatee river at Neilsen's ford, will be finished as soon as possible. Although they were insured for a term of 8 years by the contractors the county will share a portion of the loss on account of the severity of the freshet that damaged them.

Lee Soseby, a former student of the N. G. A. College, who has been traveling around for his health for some time arrived in the city last Tuesday and all of his many friends here were glad to meet him. Hope that his return to Dahlonega will be beneficial to him in the way of health.

We understand that Scott Stringer, of Half Way, Ga., in this county, became involved to the tune of about $1,000 and left out the other day. Mr. Hynds came up from Gainesville to close out his store but his wife agreed to sell the goods and all her corn and turn over the proceeds to him which was agreed to.

There is an old confederate envelope in the ordinary's office that was addressed to Capt. Kelly in '64 which has been referred to frequently when old veterans making out their claims for pensions couldn't remember Capt. Kelly's command. While some old records were being bound this envelope was found among them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lilly, of Dawson county, spent last Sunday in Dahlonega with their son Col. O. J. Lilly. Mr. Lilly was at one time elected ordinary of Lumpkin county by a good majority but he has long since quit politics and gone to farming in a profitable manner, which pays him more than any county office in this part of the state, saying nothing about the independency a farmer enjoys.

The third child of Charlie Meskofee has taken the scarlet fever and his wife makes four cases at that residence now. No one is allowed to go in nor out causing Charlie to have a hard time of it waiting on all of them without any assistance whatever. These are the only cases in town and how it originated here can not be told unless it was caused by some one from the country spending the night at Charlies.

Some days ago Berry Turner of this county latched up his mare and went out after a load of wood. Soon he espied a big high stump which suited his fancy. It being too heavy for him to get on the wagon by himself he backed his vehicle up near by and cut the stump down. When it fell on his wagon down it broke and came near killing his mare. It cost about $6.00 to have the wagon repaired causing Berry to load a wagon differently when getting wood over since.

Good fodder has been going at $2.00 per hundred in Dahlonega.

A number of chickens and a good deal of meat were stolen from several of our citizens during the holidays.

Experts thinks there are oil at Rome, Ga., and arrangements are being made by Chavago capitalists to start five wells within the next few days. It may be that we have oil right here in Lumpkin county. There is no telling what will be developed in the near future.

Judge W. W. Murray, of Tennessee, president of the Gainesville and Dahlonega Electric Railroad, came in this week. Judge Murray always makes every thing pleasant wherever he goes which causes us to feel glad when he is in our midst, saying nothing of the great benefits he has brought about in this county since his first visit to it a few years ago.

The Gainesville & Dahlonega Electric Railway Company made the first payment to D. E. Evans on his street railroad Monday. The payment was made two days before it was due. The company gave Mr. Evans notice to remove his track from the streets in order for the electric line. The contract requires that the tracks of the old car line be removed on ten days notice, but this time limit was not insisted on when the payment was made, as the streets it is on are not to be graded at present; in fact they have already been put to a grade, and very little work will be done on them. Men all along the line from here to Dahlonega are cutting cross-ties for the main line where suitable timber can be found, but most of them will come from beyond the Chattahoochee river, as suitable timber between here and there is scarce.—Engle.

The old out going mayor and aldermen of Dahlonega vacated their seats last Monday evening and the new ones were installed. After O. J. Lilly was elected mayor or pro tem and J. C. McGee treasurer, the following committees were appointed to-wit: Finance;—O. J. Lilly, chairman, T. F. Jackson and E. G. Jones. Street and cemetery;—Dr. C. H. Jones, chairman, Prof. J. W. Boyd and F. G. Jones. Sanitary;—Dr. C. H. Jones, chairman, Prof. Boyd, J. E. McGee, Dr. H. C. Whelchel, Dr. Homer Head and J. V. Harbison. W. J. Worley was elected clerk at the former salary a fee of $2.00 for each regular meeting, and the treasurer one-half per cent for receiving and one-half for paying out. The balloting for marshal continued until 12 o'clock without any election—beginning with 3 for J. V. Harbison, 3 for J. B. Andersen and one for James Walker and ended the same way. So Marshal Harbison holds over until they try it again on the first Monday in February.

Last Monday night Sheriff J. M. Davis, Geo. Walker and Tom Ray went over into Fannin county and brought in Rob Long who killed Henry Clark in this county a little over three years ago at Jones Creek district at the general election in October. He was found sleeping up in the loft of John Long, his father, and the posse reached the premises and had him safely hand cuffed at 1 o'clock, a. m. without any trouble as he made no resistance and in some nine or ten hours had him safely behind the bars of Lumpkin county jail. Bob's family still reside in this county and the prisoner claims that he assisted his folks in the making of last years crop, and doubtless spent the greatest portion of his time at home and at his fathers. At his fathers he had a ladder by which he reached the loft and then pulled the ladder up, and placed it where it could not be seen. Soon after the killing Clark's brothers and relatives placed one hundred dollars in the sheriffs hands as a reward for catching Long. One hundred dollars more was added to this by the governor. For some months George Walker has been trying to locate him but all efforts of his were fruitless until this time.

Luster Cavender and Ned Moose, who were sentenced to the penitentiary from this county for a term of four years each, have been pardoned after serving about two years, and are back at home.

At B. R. Meadors & Sons you will find the latest improved sausage and coffee mills from 15c to $1.25. Also a beautiful lot of pictures and frames just received; and remember they sell shoes cheaper than any one. Call and see them. It will cost you nothing to look and get their prices. They are always glad to see you.

L. W. Bradley, of Boston, Mass., paid Dahlonega a visit this week for the purpose of looking over the mining fields. He has been mining in Alaska but says he wants to invest in mining property where the climate will permit him to work the entire year. This section is the place for Mr. Bradley, as we have but few days cold enough to freeze out the mines.

Sam W. Small will deliver the next lecture in the Lyceum Course at the college chapel next Saturday evening. Subject: "Some new things about an old acquaintance." It is understood that said old acquaintance is his satanic majesty, the Devil. Every body knows that Sam Small is one of the most entertaining speakers on the platform, and a treat is in store for all who shall here him.

A. W. Maxwell, who has been mining over in Union county at the Gum Log mine for a few weeks, was in the city a short while this week. Mr. Maxwell is highly pleased with his proposition. He has been using a giant successfully and discovered enough hard ore to justify him in putting up a stamp mill. A large number of beautiful specimens showing much gold have already been taken out.

The board of education met last Tuesday and transacted a number of important matters. Among the most important to teachers was the raising of their salaries a small nite, being $18, $25 and $28 per month of all the schools to be taught this winter and next spring where there is nothing to prevent it, and that all schools be discontinued when less than 15 per month attend. At this time there are four schools in the county that will have to be supplied with teachers. C. Shultz, who did his and an assistants work in the Nimberville school was only allowed the regular salary of one.

The City's Business for 1902.

From the finance committee's report for 1901 we gather the following information concerning the financial standing of Dahlonega, to-wit:

Public school fund total $1290.28. Paid to board $1000. Balance in city treasury $290.38. This fund will run school to June 1902. Total collected to pay bonds $985.52. Interest and indebtedness $679.65. Balance in treasury $5.87. Total collected on marshal's fund $488.90. Total paid out to Jan. 1st $480.60. Balance in treasury $83.90. Total collected on general fund $282.27. Total paid out to Jan. 1st $109.18. Balance in treasury $173.09. Total sanitary taxes collected $354.67. Total paid out $805.76. Balance in treasury $489.1. Sanitary tax uncollected $78.50. Out standing orders on sanitary account $99.45. Street tax received in work $295.50. Street tax received in cash $957.00. Total paid out on street tax $498.51. Account overdrawn $51.51. Outstanding orders on street tax unpaid $124.12. Street tax uncollected $24.00. Total collected from sale of cemetery lot $10.60. Balance in treasury $9.60. Total fines and costs collected $333.00. Total paid out on this fund $210.53. Balance in treasury $222.44. Dog tax collected $48.50. Paid out treasurers commission 48 cts. Balance in treasury $48.02.

Rural Free Delivery.

Rural free delivery will go to where the people have or are willing to provide good roads. It will take several years to spread the delivery system over all of the fairly well populated portions of the country. Those portions which have at all times or at certain times of the year such roads as make the service expensive will be denied the luxury of having the mail brought to the house every day.

Daily the representatives in Congress are being more strongly impressed with this fact. When a good case is made out in favor of a certain route the department acts upon the report of the special agent, and "bad roads in the spring" is certain to cause the petition to be held up for a time, and sometimes for good.

It is understood that the department will enforce a rule to the effect that if carries report their inability to cover a route on account of the condition of the roads, it will be abolished and mail service be given from the village post-office.—Houston Post.

Fortune in a Smoke

Over in Idaho they are telling as a remarkable incident the lucky mining strike made by E. W. Jones, editor of the Idaho World. He went out to visit a claim in the mountains for the purpose of giving it a write-up.

On the way back he tired and sat down in the shade of a bit of brush to rest. Presently he fell asleep, and the corn-cob pipe he was smoking dropped from his mouth and started to roll down hill. Waking immediately, Mr. Jones went to pursue it.

A hundred yards down the hill he found his loved Missouri meerschaum lodged against a peculiar looking ledge. He decided that there must be something in the ledge or the pipe would not have stopped there, so he staked out a claim. Work he has done on the property since then has uncovered a vein that assays $50 a ton.—Anaconda Standard.

For the Complexion.

There are very few women who would not like to be beautiful and who do not watch the changes time makes in their appearance, so faithfully portrayed by their mirror, with a sigh of regret. Good complexions are a gift of nature, but many that are not very good might be greatly improved. The clearness, and consequently the beauty, of the skin depends very much upon the care that is taken of it, and every woman should be willing to lose the small amount of time necessary to keep it in the best possible condition.

Frequent bathing, plenty of outdoor exercise and sufficient sleep are aids to health and beauty. Never use hard water for washing the face, as it is destructive to a good complexion, but soften it by dissolving powdered borax in it, and it will be as good as rainwater. Have the water warm for washing, then rinse in cold water, which braces the skin, makes the blood circulate freely, and prevents wrinkles to a great extent. Rub gently with the hands after drying.

Many writers have attempted to make tan and freckles popular, but they have not succeeded, for no matter how much we may admire the physical health and strength which comes from outdoor exercise, we are anxious to avoid the wind and sunshine. It is a good plan on return from a ride or shopping expedition to bathe the face in tepid water, then apply a little cold cream, rubbing it in well. This is good for chapped hands also, and will keep them soft and smooth.

Avoid all patent nostrums for beautifying the skin. Not only the complexion, but the general health, often suffer permanent injury, as nearly all of them contain poison. Simple lotions and cream that can be prepared at home are just as effective, and you have the satis-

A Splendid Sermon.

More could not be put into the lengthiest sermon. Better advice could not fall from the lips of wisdom than the thought contained in the following, which we find in one of our exchanges:

One of life's paradoxes is that he who gives gets. The way to success is by surrender. They who are the most lavish with their own life are the ones into whose lap the world pours the richest treasures. Thousands of hearts are starving today because they are too stingy. They have withheld themselves, and with the withholding have grown lean and poor. The fat and prosperous soul is the one which is liberal with itself, which offers itself as food and strength to every needy man and cause. There is no secret for greatness like the secret of giving—constant and unparing giving of self's best.

Not they who seek to get—to gather to themselves the world's best things, and thus find satisfaction—but they who humbly offer themselves in sympathy and service to the world, learn life's joy.

How shall young men and women secure greatest success? simply by offering themselves on the altar of the world's every day needs. Laziness of life, fineness of character, honor of the honorable, love of all, will crowd toward the young person who unselfishly labors to serve men through commonplace days and weary nights. In ways humble and high, by means insignificant and great, give up your best talents to all whom you can by any means help and reward in time eternity is certain.—Merkel Mail.

An old Maryland colored man was summoned to court by the controversy over the ownership of a mule.

"Who bought the mule?" demanded the judge.

"Clem snif and Ah each bought half ob him, sah," responded the old man.

"Where is Smith now?"

"He aint nebbor cum down yit, sah. He went to curry his half when his half was in a bad humor. Clem's chilton wants to get deh half am dess half."

"Stop!" roared the judge, dismissing the case.—Chicago News.

CITATION.

Georgia, Lumpkin County.
William J. Worley, administrator with the will annexed of the estate in Georgia of Charles D. Griggs, deceased, late of Volusia county, Florida, having filed his petition for discharge, this is to cite all persons concerned to show cause against the granting of such discharge at the regular term of the court of Ordinary for said county of Lumpkin to be held on the first Monday in February, 1902. This the 4th day of November, 1901.

J. B. BROWN, C. T.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 9th day of Jan. 1902.
JOHN HUFF, Ord'y.

Bee Culture is receiving attention in South and West Texas. In some of the canon caves and in many a hollow tree in certain sections of the State the bees have stored tons of honey, and in the section between Huston and the Rio Grande, if properly conducted, may be very profitable as every month of the year produces material for the bees to work upon.

The Boston Post recently opened a free vaccination station, and during the three days it was open to the public more than 3,000 persons presented themselves before The Post's staff of physicians and were vaccinated.

A Question in Finance.

Jack Shields, well known on Mount Adams, tells the following story on a young man of the East Side whose name he refuses to divulge:

"He courted a young lady of my acquaintance," explained Jack, and finally proposed to her. She was from Missouri, and had shown how much my friend was earning he told her $16 per week. She accepted him. During the first week after the marriage the young man arose at 4 o'clock each morning and was on his way to work an hour later. He never returned until 7 o'clock in the evening, stating that he worked twelve hours, from 6 o'clock a. m. to 6 p. m. Thus it was that the wife saw but little of her husband.

"On pay day the early riser and hard worker brought his envelope, still sealed, to his better half. When she opened it she was rather astonished to find but $8.

"How is this, dear? I thought you were earning $16 per week?" she asked.

"So I am; but I only worked half my time last week," he replied.

"Well, for heavens sake, was her startled query, 'what time would you leave the house and when would you return each day if you worked full time?' Cincinnati Enquirer.

Three Curious Bells.

There is a curious legend connected with the bells of Missingham church. It is said that a long time ago a traveler was passing through Messingham when he saw three men sitting on a stile in the churchyard and saying, "Come to church, Thomson; come to church, Brown and so on. Being very much surprised, he asked what it meant and was told that, having no bells they called folks to church in this way. The traveler remarked that it was a pity so fine a church should be without bells and at the same time asked the men if they could make three for the church, promising to pay for them himself.

They undertook to do this. They were respectively a tinker, a carpenter and a shoemaker. When next the traveler passed that way, he found the three men ringing three bells which said, "Ting, tong, pling," being made respectively of tin, wood and leather!—London Tit-Bits.

Diet and Oilspring

A veteran lumberman told the following story the other day. It may be recognized by some as a familiar acquaintance in new clothes:

"The commissary of subsistence in a large lumber camp in the northwest drove 150 miles to get a change of fare and return with two crates of live poultry. Grain being out of the question, the fowls were fed on corn meal made into dough. That proving very expensive, our commissary mixed sawdust with it in the portion of three parts of sawdust. The chickens ate as usual, and the hens began to lay.

"By and by as the meal grew scarcer the portion of sawdust was increased until the food became a mixture of three parts of the woody product to one of meal. One of the older hens manifesting a desire to brood, twelve eggs were assigned to her, and at the end of twenty-one days what do you suppose she hatched? Eleven woodpeckers and a chick with a wooden leg."—New York Press.

She Was Not to Be Buncoed.

Sometime ago an elderly married couple, who had spent the greater part of their lives in a village in Derbyshire, made up their minds to take a journey to London, says an exchange.

They received plenty of advice from their neighbors about how they were to take care of themselves, and especially to be careful of the London sharper. To save expense, they decided to go by one of the cheap trains that started from a neighboring town. They got safely off, and all went well till the train reached Bedford, at which place it stopped a few minutes.

The old man, thinking he had plenty of time, went to the refreshment bar to get a glass of beer, and he was so frustrated by the crowd that he did the very thing he was afraid of—got left behind. An express train being due, however, in a few minutes, the station master kindly allowed him to go by it, and he was thus enabled to reach London twenty minutes before his wife.

He was eagerly on the lookout when the trippers arrived, and seeing his wife, he rushed up to her shouting:

"Hi, Betty, I'm glad to see ye again. I thought we wor parted forever!"

Betty looked at him indignantly and remembering the advice of her country neighbors, said:

"Away w' ye, man. Don't be count' yer Lannon tricks w' me. I left my own man at t'other station. If yer don't be off at once, I'll call a boddy and have yer locked up."

Making Money Too Fast to Jump.

Here is one that a young man who knows a good story when he hears it heard one railroad man tell another in a depot up the line the other day, says the Portland Oregonian:

"We picked up a new Irishman somewhere up-country and set him to work brakin' on a construction train at three cents a mile for wages. One day when him an' me was on the train she got away on one of them mountain grades, and the first thing we knowed she was flyin' down the track at about 90 miles an hour, with nothin' in sight but the ditch and the happy huntin' grounds when we came to the end. 'I twisted 'em down as hard as I could all along the tops, then of a sudden I see Mike crawl in' along toward the end of one of the cars on an all fours, with his face the color of milk. I thought he was gettin' ready to jump, an' I see his finish if he did.

"Mike," I say, 'for God's sake don't jump.'

"He clamps his fingers on the runnin' board to give him a chance to turn round, lookin' at me contemptuous, answers:

"Jump, is it? Do yez think I'd be after jumpin' an' me makin' money as fast as I am?"

How to Get Rid of Ants.

To rid the house of black ants there is perhaps no better rule than the old and long tried one of the brushing thoroughly all the cracks and crevices infested by insects with a hot solution of alum and water. Two pounds of alum should be dissolved in three quarts of water and allowed to stand until desolved. It should be boiling hot while it is being used. All household insects disappear before this treatment.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 17, 1902.

The Nugget office is the place to get your type writer paper.

The farmers from all parts of the county complain of their lands being badly damaged by the late frost.

Since the Jay bridge was washed away Judge Huff has had a good ford made across the river at that place.

We are indebted to Judge Stone of Denver, Col., for a paper of his city containing a full description of the mines of that section, which is very interesting.

Not long ago Dr. Cayender of Wahoo, Ga., killed a hog weighing a little over 500 pounds net. If more farmers would raise their own meat like this, times would be better.

L. P. Soseby, who has been in the employ of the Electric Railway Co. at Gainesville, has been transferred to Dahlonega, where he will remain for an indefinite period.

We had the pleasure of seeing another large gold brick this week taken from the Crown Mountain gold mine. Gold bricks like this is enough to cause every body to have great confidence in this celebrated gold mine.

It was reported that little Zeke Benson had the scarlet fever near the cemetery. The child has the sore throat and the physicians are watching developments, which will be reported to the council as soon as known—that is if it is scarlet fever.

Subscriptions to the National McKinley monument are being solicited by Col. W. P. Price, who desires to forward as much money as he can by the 29th inst., Mr. McKinley's birthday. Those wishing to make donations to this fund should send in the amount to Col. Price at once.

Two weddings occurred in this county last Sunday, being Mr. Goodman Walden to Miss Callie, daughter of Mr. Jacob Satterfield of Hightower district. The other took place in Yahoola district. The contracting parties being Mr. Martin Guerin and Miss Amanda Ash daughter of William Ash.

There are 78 pensioners in Lumpkin county who draw $4,470 as follows: 39 indigent widows $80 each. 5 indigent widows $80 each. 17 war widows $80 each. 17 disabled soldiers who receive from $5 up to $100, all of whom will get their money on the 26th inst., or as soon thereafter as they come for it.

The annual report of the county treasurer, J. B. Brown, will be found on the first page of this issue. Judge Huff borrowed $1,000 from Judge W. W. Murray last week which will run the current expenses of the county for awhile. The damage to the bridges will necessitate the borrowing of about $500 later on. He gets this money at 6 per cent.

Rev. V. A. Higgins, of Auraria, was up last Tuesday for the purpose of making arrangements with some one to have a large pump, boiler and iron pipes hauled from a mine near that place belonging to Dr. Morrison of Atlanta, to the Loud mine in White county, he is going to Judge Reeves of Athens, Ga., which is to be operated on a larger scale than heretofore.

The boys down in the neighborhood of our friend W. T. Bryson tell a good joke on the old man. They said that he returned from Dahlonega the other day with a hog's head and called for the key to the smoke house. He unlocked the door and as the head was dropped out of a sack remarked, "that is for my own tooth." He not only kept the smoke house fastened but had the boat crossing the river locked until the meat was devoured. Bill has not lived 60 years without learning what a good thing is.

Some of the Hand mill plates are to be sent off to be dressed over.

The letter of Mr. Bowen, of Garland, Ga., will appear next week.

The Cane Creek bridge is finished and ready for the public to cross.

A gentleman of this county is buying enough squirrel skins to make his baby a nice robe.

Do you need any nice letter heads or envelopes printed? If so come to the NUGGET office and the work will be done upon short notice.

The junior editor of the Signal tells us that his paper will not be out this week on account of mashing his thumb severely in the job press.

Capt. Asbury reports that big works will open out with spring at Coyender's Creek mine. A large rock crusher is now at Gainesville for the mine.

For some time Dr. N. F. Howard has been confined to his room on account of sickness but we are glad to state that he is improving.

Jos. Bell, formerly of Auraria but now of Atlanta, who has unearthed thousands of pennyweights of gold in Lumpkin county, was back here on a visit this week.

Rev. Mr. Blackwell, just from Nacoochee Valley, reports that the Alley House was burned down last Sunday. Cause: A defective stove flue. Every thing in the upper story was lost.

Several times we have been asked if any grading was being done this side of the Chattahoochee river. Upon asking J. F. Moore, one of the directors last Wednesday, he informed us that they had graded some two or three miles on this side of the river and were still engaged at the work coming on this way.

Next Monday evening in the college chapel the Decora Society will celebrate the birthday of Gen. R. E. Lee. Also the 27th anniversary of the south's prosperous career. J. H. Seales, the anniversary or speaker will entertain you with a prepared speech on "The Duties of the Educated Youth to Society." Every body invited to attend.

Look out for bargains at B. K. Meaders & Sons. Boys and youths suits from $1.05 to $3.25 while they last. Wool hose 15 to 20c. Best in town. Children's hose and mittens 5 to 20c. Double bound slates 5 to 25. All wool medicated flannel 24c. Nice zinc trunks $1.59. Rugs 36 cents to $2.50. Headquarters for tailor made clothing, both ladies and gents. Satisfaction and fit guaranteed. Price $10 to $35.

The Methodist preacher has been busy this week visiting the homes of church members, praying for them that they may keep renewed acquaintance with the Lord and be in close touch with Him through His churches. If all carry out this good man's instructions this will be a happy land of ours provided we have plenty to eat and to wear. We don't care how much religion a person has they are not happy unless they have these things.

Last Tuesday while Frank Weaver and several parties were out hunting near Mr. Haydens some three miles from town, his gun went off and inflicted a dangerous wound. They were both drinking and can tell but little about it except that it was an accident. From what so can gather they were throwing up rocks and shooting at them, and Frank in setting his gun down the hammer hit something and the lead entered the top part of his right shoulder, cut his collar in two and tore the flesh so as to expose the bone on the side of his head. Fortunately Dr. Stow was on his way to Mr. Haydens, close by where the accident occurred, who soon gave the wound the proper attention. The doctor says that he doesn't think that it will kill Frank.

The rebuilding of the pillars at the new bridge across the river at Neisler's Ford, is being pushed forward as fast as possible.

Cols. Baker and Charters are examining the papers, &c., in the Witt and Adams gold ore matter with the hopes of bringing about a satisfactory settlement.

The coal famine, which is at most in sight in cities should cause us to rejoice because we "live in the woods" and are not dependent upon any mine for fuel.

The high price of eggs during the past year should induce our farmers to raise more poultry. They are now selling at two and a half cents each or thirty cents per dozen in Atlanta, twice as high as they have been in Dahlonega.

Judge Baker, the new Mayor, held his first court last Monday so as to dispose of some defendants who plead guilty to being disorderly Saturday night, being J. W. Stevens, Robin Blackstock and "Chock" Thomas. Each was fined $3 and cost.

The business of J. E. Smith, the Florida Constitution man who has swindled the ladies all over the country out of much money, is now in the hands of a receiver. This should be a warning to all that have lost money. If you have any cash to give way to editors we will take charge of it and save you the trouble of sending it off to strangers.

Last Sunday Will Elrod, who has been begging around in Dahlonega for some time, was lodged in jail by sheriff Davis thinking that he was the one wanted in Dawson county for breaking open a store some time ago, but this man is too lazy to do a thing of this kind and was turned out. He has been claiming that his father and mother are down with the fever. They have been well near a year and his father works in the gold mines every day.

Bob Long, who is now in jail, charged with the murder of Henry Clark some three years ago, doesn't seem to be the least bit uneasy. He talks freely about the matter to all who visit the jail and will to converse with him. He doesn't deny the killing but thinks that he was justifiable because he states that the deceased and his brother followed him with rocks. He kept on telling them if they didn't stop as they were approaching him that he would kill them. One did but the other went on and the result was death. The mother of the Clark was a colored woman and one of them asked Long's daughter some time previous to allow him to accompany her home from church, seems to be the origin of the whole trouble. They had some words that day at the election, and Long claims that he went home to get his gun for a squirrel hunt is why he had it, and they came upon him after the election was over. Col. Baker will likely defend Long.

Last Friday afternoon it was reported that a student from Dawson county named Harbin, was breaking out with the small pox. Dr. Stow made an examination and reported to the council that it looked very much like chicken pox but in all probability it was whatever kind of disease they had in that county as the young man returned from home just after Christmas, where they had only recovered from the disease a short while. Mr. Harbin and five or six other students mess at Mrs. Abbotts, in the far edge of the Southwestern portion of the city near W. J. Hightowers. At once the house was quarantined and the young man's father notified who came and carried his boy home on Monday. The patient has never been sick enough to go to bed and walked as far as Cane Creek bridge when he departed Monday. We don't think that there is any cause for great alarm but it is best to be cautious. At once Judge Huff telegraphed Gov. Chandler to send him 200 vaccine points so as to be ready for those desiring to be vaccinated.

Your attention is called to the card of G. G. Evans who is prepared to saw you lumber or cut shingles upon short notice.

The girl's dormitory will be about completed this week. It is a nice structure and the workmanship is splendid.

Mr. Breyman, general manager of the Consolidated Co., after being absent in the North for some time is back in his post getting his "gold sayer" ready for operation.

One of the city aldermen in giving us the "only changes that had been made" last week failed to mention mayor pro tem is why we published that Col. Lilly had been re-elected instead of Dr. Jones.

Charlie McAfee's family are improving with the scarlet fever. No other cases in town that we know of and not likely to be as the city authorities have used every precaution possible. The family has been dismissed by the physician.

The water this side of Yahoola bridge should be ditched and kept out of the road. One or two horses have been crippled already on the ice and it is almost impossible to cross over it with a heavy loaded wagon. Just a few hours work would prevent all trouble.

The 29th day of February has been fixed for the ordinary of this county to go to Atlanta and receive all the checks for pensioners residing in Lumpkin county. Mr. Huff will return the following day and have them ready for distribution on the 26. Remember this.

For years a man in the upper portion of the county has been hot with liquor, causing his wife to get to using it, the habit growing on her so that she frequently gets drunk. Now the man says he is going to quit her—fall out with his wife for a thing that he has caused and is guilty of himself.

Blockade liquor causes trouble in various ways. There is a certain man residing in this county now who lost one of his eyes following a fellow with a keg of liquor. They were passing through the woods and the one in front let a limb fly back which hit the hindmost man in the eye knocking it out.

The revenue officers passed through Chestatee district last week. They didn't find anything except a still worm but caused one man who is running a still up there to be scared about half to death when there was no danger for they didn't even know that he was in the business. They were in search of another man.

Mr. Jaquish of Gainesville, paid us a visit Saturday in company with his friend Mr. Kiser of New York. Mr. Kiser was here for the first time looking over the mining field with a view of investing. We judge that he is pleased for he informed us after looking around that he would likely be with us in the near future and remain longer.

We received a letter from our old friend S. A. Kelly last Saturday, who has recently located at Mart, Texas. Anderson used to be one of the boys in Dahlonega just after the surrender, who was full of life and fun and made things lively in these parts. Many years have brought about great changes since then in Dahlonega among his comrades. Some have sought newer and brighter fields in different parts of the country while others are asleep in the city of the dead.

There resides in the mountains a female who deals in blockade liquor. She frequently comes to the outskirts of Dahlonega riding in a cart drawn by an ox and is as anxiously looked for by her many customers as a milk wagon in a city. She has no breaks to her vehicle but gives the animal the reins and lets it go as fast as it desires. Neither does she ring any bell. The noise of the cart is sufficient notification, and when a person speaks to her the ox stops as suddenly as a candidate horse.

Both college and society printed stationary at J. F. Moores.

Plenty of nice white kraut and pickled beans at E. E. Crissons.

When you want the NUGGET send in the money and then we are sure not to forget it.

Wilburn Grizzle, of Nimbleshill district, was tried for blockading last week and acquitted.

This is the season for suing and collecting debts. Send to the NUGGET office and get your blanks.

We cannot expect to have the rural mail delivery established in Lumpkin county until we learn to keep the roads in better shape.

G. G. Evans of Wahoo, was awarded the contract of furnishing the lumber for the Gorge plant, being about two hundred thousand feet.

The cold wave of Saturday night slipped up on us. It must have commenced this time at Dahlonega else the weather men were all asleep. We must have one located here so as to enable us to notify other places when the wave commences at this end of the line.

The city council is active wisely in looking after the health of the town by keeping contagious diseases from spreading, but there is another matter which is just as important, and that is the appointment of a night watch, for what would health be worth to our citizens should fire break out and rob them of their homes, leaving them no place to shelter their heads? Don't wait till a regular meeting, but call a special gathering and attend to this matter before it is too late.

Saturday night at 8 o'clock sharp Rev. W. H. McAfee, by request went to a place to wed Ed. Austin, col. upon his arrival Edward was sitting by the side of a woman old enough for his grand ma, representing happiness, love and trouble combined. The divine saw at once that there was something wrong. The negro was almost covered up in a Prince Albert coat, but this didn't hide his troubles. At once he called Mr. McAfee off to one side and said, "Mr. McAfee, I will have to put this thing off. Dars a girl I've been going to see down the way and she says if I marries this woman she will have me put in jail, and lawyer Baker tells me not to marry." Then with a boo, hoo, Edward and the old woman separated with tears dropping from their eyes as large as plums. As the divine passed out at the door he heard a noise like the sound of an old field sprout. The negroes heart had burst. It was more than he could endure.

Some days since John Loggins and his wife of this county, decided to go to Gainesville. They had Ben Hollifield to accompany them. The object of their visit was to take in all that could be seen either in that thriving city or on the way. So in passing the Dudley house in Hall county where two men were killed some months ago, the wife and husband decided to visit the place and look in as it had been oft repeated that the blood and brains of the two men could still be seen on the floor. When they reached the door they found a lot of corn tops stacked up in the room covering the most of it. But as they had gone to see both commenced looking around. It was not long before John discovered the tops moving and called the wife's attention to it. The lady, as she stepped out at the door said, "Let's go John." John said that he was going to see what it was and with a stick moved the tops. Out came an old sow with a booh! booh! John fell backwards in the door crying murder, murder, while the hog ran out over him and the lady, not taking time to see what it meant ran off also giving the same distressing yell at the top of her voice. Ben Hollifield, being less superstitious soon saw what it was and eventually the others did too but they were very sorry the rest of the day.

The NUGGET is not only read by the people of its own section, but besides visiting every postoffice in Lumpkin county goes to 218 others in different parts of the United States and Territories.

Recently, soon after a lady moved from Dahlonega she wrote back instructing one of her relatives to forward her church letter and the Dahlonega NUGGET. Both have gone forward and may this good christian lady live many years of happiness and prosperity.

The prettiest and most convenient business house in town is the Price Block, the lower story of which will soon be occupied by W. P. Price, Jr. and F. L. Reese, who have formed a partnership in the mercantile business and ask a share of the patronage of the citizens of Dahlonega and surrounding country as soon as they get fixed up for trading.

One of the chimneys blazing out at the Dahlonega Hotel Saturday night caused some excitement for awhile until it died out, without any damage. People can't be too careful about fire. Should one break out here now it would be impossible almost to extinguish it. Burn out all your chimneys while the roofs are wet and there will not be so much danger. On Sunday the floor or sleeper in one of the rooms caught a fire.

Collector Richardson and Marshal Grizzle went down into Dawson county this week and captured Charlie Crawford in an illicit distillery busily engaged in manufacturing the liquid that is so well loved by a big majority of people, both black and white. This makes the sixth case they have against Charlie—bunch warrants being issued in two or three of them. Poor Charlie is a goner for some time to come.

Mrs. A. L. Head, after being sick for several weeks, breathed her last late Friday afternoon, aged about 75. Mrs. Head was the wife of C. A. J. Head, who passed away some years ago. The deceased was a good, kind hearted christian lady, having been a member of the Baptist church for many years. Mrs. Head in her last hours was surrounded by many friends and all of her relatives in this section except one of her sons, Mr. Polk Head, who had driven down to Gainesville after a load of goods and his mother was dead and buried before he returned, not even knowing that she was gone until he reached town Saturday afternoon.

As stated in a previous issue Will Palmer and Frank Rider had a little twist over on the Chestatee river during Christmas, causing Frank to swear out a warrant for Palmer charging him with an assault, who went before the Squire of Martin's Ford district last Saturday, waived examination and was required to make a two hundred dollar bond. Then Palmer swore out a warrant for Rider and he came before Squire Worley at Dahlonega, did like Palmer and gave a hundred dollar bond for his appearance at the next term of Lumpkin Superior Court when they will both be called before the bar of justice and made to show cause why they were celebrating the birth of Christ by trying to shoot each other with the same gun.

Last Saturday night makes the second time the managers at headquarters of the Lyceum Course have made an appointment for Sam Small to lecture in Dahlonega and he has failed to fill it. They did send up a lot of his pictures. This reminds us of an incident that occurred here once when Samps Palmer of Dawson county came to take dinner with old Uncle Billy Roberts, both colored. Samps was about to devour every piece of meat in the plate when Uncle Billy said to him, "Samps, take some of dem meat skins. Doy's just as good as meat." So he judge that those people think that some of Sam Small's pictures will do the people of Dahlonega just as well as if they were to see and hear him.

A Tale Almost to Good to be True,

During the blizzard of '90 I started one day from the central office of the Bureau of Charity to distribute money to some cases reported for "instant relief." In an attic I found a poor widow, a seamstress, with one child, a boy of six. The room was cold and bare; there was no fire, the windows were loose and snow lay up on the floor. The boy had been kept in bed for two days to keep warm. I asked the usual questions and gave the woman $2. All this before I discovered the boy. Suddenly his head bobbed from beneath the bed clothes, and at sight of the two bills his eyes became moons. "Gee-e-e, Mister! All that for us? Then we can give some to Ted Burns' mother down stairs to buy coal. Can't we Mom?"—The Rev. David M. Steele, in the Ladies' Home Journal.

When He Was Twenty-One.

There is a young criminal lawyer in the city who, on the occasion of his becoming of age, began the celebration of his birthday in a way that caused his household a great deal of consternation, says the Memphis Scimitar.

On the eve of the fest, shortly after midnight, the young man's family were suddenly startled from their slumbers by a loud voice in the house calling, "There's a man in the house! There's a man in the house!"

The valiant paterfamilias rushed from his room, bearing in his hands a heavy billet of fire wood, to learn the cause of the disturbance and to capture the intruder. His son was standing in the hall, shouting at the top of his voice, "Where's the man?" exclaimed the old gentleman.

"Here, sir; here," promptly replied the young man. "This is he. At last I'm 21!"

Sault and Pepper.

This bright particular youngster has a patriarchal wisdom concerning the things of this life, although he occasionally permits himself an inquiry into something not quite clear to him, says the New York Evening Post. One evening he was sitting with his Aunt Mary and Aunt Susettia. Conversation had turned to the subject of unmarried women, and the youngster listened intently. In a pause in the talk he looked up and asked: "What are maiden ladies?" Aunt Mary replied: "They are ladies who never get married." The youngster's brow contracted, and Aunt Mary added, to make things clearer: "They are like Aunt Lucretia and me, the salt of the earth."

Instantly the youngster exclaimed:

"Then those who get married are the pepper, I suppose."

Ellsworth Packard has brought an action for libel against the Democrat and Chronicle company of Rochester, N. Y., for $8,000 damages. Packard was recently tried for an alleged assault, and in the defendant paper's account of the trial it was incidentally remarked, it is declared, that he had once been convicted of arson. This, he claims, is false. He admits being tried for the crime once, but says he was acquitted.

Dorothy Dix says the newspaper woman is no longer regarded as a freak. She now works side by side with her brother and stands on her own merits. When this principle is generally recognized, it will be better for the profession and women seeking to enter it. If woman must work, should certainly be permitted to labor on the same terms with man and receive equal pay for the same service.—Ex.

Kindred Vices.

The Rev. Justus Forward, settled in Bolchertown, Mass., a hundred years ago, once reproved a workman for swearing while he was plowing a new field. "Swear?" said the man. "I guess you'd swear."

Mr. Forward took the plow and hurried after it, indignantly the charge. Then, as the field became more impassable, he began panting:

"I never did see the like! I never did see the like!" When he had gone once round the field, he stopped breathless and said:

"There you see I didn't find it necessary to swear."

"No," drawled the man, "but you've told more than fifty lies. You said you never did see the like, and you saw it all the time I was plowing!"—Youths Companion.

The Pulpit Versus the Bar.

An eminent American lawyer now deceased was sadly given to intoxication. On one occasion he entered a church while a minister was holding forth on the future punishment of the wicked.

Fixing his eye upon the lawyer, who was leaning near the door, the preacher exclaimed, "There stands a sinner against who I will bear witness in the day of judgment."

At this the lawyer folded his arms, planted himself as firmly as he could, and addressing the man in the pulpit, electrified the whole congregation after this fashion:

"Sir, I have been practising in the criminal courts for 20 years, and I have always found that the greatest reward is the first to give state's evidence.—The Scotsman.

The Home and Happiness.

The diffusion of happiness is one of the great primal laws of posing happiness ourselves. The home is founded on this idea, and if it is not recognized the home is not an ideal one. The unity of home depends upon the unselfishness of every member, and the acceptance of the idea that will try to make the others happy. In so doing we promote the happiness of ourselves through the indirect method which is today accepted as to moral law of human love and sympathy. In the broader sense this altruism should prevail in society and public life, but it must first be cultivated in the home. Unless it finds nourishment and encouragement there it can never permeate the great mass of humanity around.—New York Weekly.

An unusual accident occurred in the woods at Stephenson. George Richardson shot a deer and the bullet passed through the animal and hit a tree. From there it glanced off and hit W. Everhardt. It struck his wrist and hit the gun stock, from which it glanced off and entered the man's mouth, inflicting a serious wound.—Milwaukee Daily News.

General Bills Passed by the Last Legislature.

There are just fifty-nine general bills passed and approved. Only one general bill was vetoed—the Wright dispensary measure. Several resolutions were vetoed, including those to pay $147 to the widow of general Kell for his salary from his death to January 1, last, and to pay the per diem of the deceased member from Oglethorpe and Jefferson counties. As there were 431 bills approved all told, it will be seen that there were passed 372 local bills, many of which amended city charters, established new school districts and created and abolished county boards of commissioners.

The following are the general bills passed and approved:

Hardwick of Washington—To change the appointment of representative in the general assembly.

Taylor of Houston—To make penal the importation, knowingly, of any diseased stock in the state.

Knowles of Floyd—Requiring assessment insurance companies to print on all policies the words, "This contract is issued upon the assessment plan."

Wright of Floyd—To amend the garnishment laws of the state.

Slaton of Fulton—To provide for pleas in suits on open accounts.

Mitchell of Emanuel—Allowing county commissions or ordinaries to fix certain compensation.

Houston of Fulton—Allowing justices court to continue term time from day to day.

Hitchcock of Douglas—To authorize the county authorities of any county in the state to employ expert accountants.

—To make the legal number of jurors in lunacy cases 6.

Hall of Fannin—To amend §82 of vol. 1 of the code.

Steed of Taylor—To prescribe that commercial fertilizers in the hands of consumers may be deemed as returned for taxation when upon which it is used have been returned.

McLennon of Telfair—To fix the time of holding courts in the Oconee circuit.

Howard of Dekalb—To re-arrange and fix the time for holding the Superior courts of the Stone Mountain circuit.

Ousley of Lowndes—To authorize the publication of Georgia reports.

Symons of Glynn—To regulate the catching of fish on the sea coast.

Smith of Hancock and Adams of Putnam—Providing for the assessments of damages inflicted by animals running at large and not impounded.

Symons of Glynn—Providing for the licensing of pilots in Georgia ports and amending the pilots' laws.

Gary of Richmond—Appropriating money for the rebuilding of the soldiers' home.

Coward of Charlton—To change the county site of Charlton from Traders' Hill to Folkston.

Houston and Slaton of Fulton—Regulating the practice in justice courts.

Senator Sullivan of the Eighteenth—Regulating the expenditure of county funds.

Blalock of Fayette—To supply deficiencies in the application for contingent expenses of the state government and for payment of pensions to disabled confederate soldiers.

Hitch of Chatham—Fixing the maximum bonds for tax receivers at $10,000.

Stubbs of Laurens—Creating a lien in favor of persons hauling logs or lumber with teams against the owners of said property.

Adams of Putnam—To provide how the property of transient persons shall be taxed in the state.

Davis of Meriwether—To authorize administrators, executors, guardians and trustees to invest trust funds in certain county and municipal bonds.

Gary of Richmond—To correct errors on the Georgia monument at Chieftams.

Gress of Wilcox—Appropriating $50,000 for the erection of a new depot in Atlanta.

Senator Swift of the thirtieth—To prescribe the tuition or resident and non-resident students in the State Technological school.

Park Green—To provide for the teaching of physiology and hygiene in the public schools.

Grice of Pulaski—To appropriate $20,000 to the Georgia State troops.

Miller of Muscogee—To provide for arbitration between counties in maintaining bridges and ferries.

Miller of McIntosh—To authorize any city in this state having a population of 15,000 to appropriate money for library purposes.

Slaton and Houston of Fulton—To provide that in all cases where judges sentence a person convicted of misdemeanor under 10 years of age to an industrial farm, it shall be for the period of their minority.

Hodges of Hart—Requiring the return of land processionaries to be filed in the ordinary's office.

McLennon of Telfair—To amend section 813 of the code, allowing superior court judges to remove jury commissioners for cause.

George of Morgan—To make it unlawful to employ or contract with a tenant or cropper already under contract with another.

King of Fulton—To amend section 93 of the code of 1895, relating to advertising public contracts for counties.

Senator Swift of the Thirtieth—Requiring all persons selling cotton seed hulls to have the weight plainly marked thereon.

Jordon of Jasper—Regulating the sale, inspection and analysis of commercial fertilizers and requiring 12 per centum plant food in all such.

Hall Kilburn and Felder of Bibb—Providing for the establishment of rules for the protection of health in the several counties in the state.

Hamby of Rabun—Authorizing boards of county commissioners or ordinaries to employ surveyors.

Senator Cann of the First—To restore the rank of lieutenant colonel to Georgia state troops, colored.

Senator Wilcox of the Fifteenth—To amend section 732 of the code.

Underwood of White—To amend section 2061 of the code.

Senator Allen of the Twentieth—To amend an act relative to fire insurance.

Peyton of Habersham—Ceding certain land in this state to the United States for forestry reserve.

Senator Herndon of the Forty-third—Extending the office of pension commissioner nine years.

Harper of Chattooga—Ceding jurisdiction to the United States of certain approaches to Chieftams park.

Stubbs of Laurens—Requiring ordinaries or commissioners to furnish office supplies to county officers.

Mitchell of Emanuel—To amend section 1255 vol. 2 of the code.

Steed of Taylor—To amend section 3509 vol. 2 of the code.

Herndon and Harrell—To provide for the removal of suits, etc.

Little of Muscogee—Amending

the general tax act by exempting industrial insurance companies.

—Amending section 2238 of the code.

Senator Allen of the Twentieth—Amending section 4719 of the code.

Blalock of Fayette—Allowing widows of soldiers who filed proofs to substantiate those of their husbands in lieu of further evidence.

Senator Howell of the Thirty-fifth—Authorizing railroads or other corporations upon the death of employees to pay widows, or minor children the wages accruing without administration.

Brunett of Clark—Allowing railroad trains to cross railroad crossing without stopping, where the automatic interlocking and derailing switches are in use.

Mr. Bowen Explains.

I notice an article in the NUGGET between Billups Stargel and me. The article said that I snatched a pistol at him and Stargel knifed me and left.

I wish to state that this is a lie and the one that reported it to the NUGGET made a mistake or a willful lie.

On the 19th day of Dec. 1901 Billups Stargel came into my house where I was selling goods and began to act a fool. He was about drunk.

He said several hard things and struck at me and ran to me and grabbed me by the collar.

I then grabbed my knife and told him to turn me loose or he would get into trouble. He then turned me loose but did not hush cursing I went on about my business to sell Taffey Peck a pair of shoes.

In about five minutes he aimed to shoot my heart out and while saying it he pulled a pistol out of his pocket and pointed it at me. I did not have a pistol at the store.

I did not wish to stand before it and it in a drunken fool's hand so I went out of the house and left him.

If any one doubts this statement they may ask B. L. McGee Jr., and Taffey Peck. They were in the house and saw it all.

I swore out a warrant for him but he has not been arrested.

I will give any one, who will arrest him and bring him to trial five dollars. I. L. Bryant has the warrant. MARION W. BOWEN.

Will Name it Dahlonega.

JONESBORO, ALA., Jan. 15.

ED. NUGGET:

Since last subscribing to your paper congress has given Jefferson county rural free mail delivery and we are going to have a station here at my store. It has not been named as yet but guess we will name it Dahlonega as we are mostly all Georgians and from Lumpkin and Dawson counties. I think Dahlonega would suit us best as we like the name.

I want you to change my address to Bessemer. By so doing I will get the NUGGET one day earlier. And as I have said before in my former letters, we are always in a fuss to see who gets it first, and now it is going to be worse because there are more to read it, I mean more of the Dahlonega boys, as two have just got in. Also two from Dawsonville. But it doesn't make any difference where they are from they want to read the NUGGET just the same.

J. W. HYDE.

Another payment of $800,000, will likely be paid to the school teachers of Georgia within a few days.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JAN. 24, 1902.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

Fulton county has 934 pensioners.

Hon. Boykin Wright of Augusta, has been appointed attorney general to succeed Col. Terrell.

Andrew Carnegie was a pretty liberal fellow during 1901, his donations amounted to $40,290,000.

A criminal was legally hung just at midnight recently at Michigan, Ind. He must have been guilty of a dark deed.

The United Confederate Veterans met at Dallas, Texas, April 22-25 inclusive. There are now 1,390 camps.

Col. Terrell is too hard to please. He has an office and should hold it until his time expires before wanting to be governor of Georgia.

Carter Tate has made us such a good congressman that it will be useless for any one to try to rob him of his seat in Washington City yet awhile.

A negro in Atlanta last week was fined $5.75 by the recorder because he threw away his money. Send him up to Dahlonega where he can remain as long as he pleases free of charge as long as his money lasts and he is so liberal.

Augusta's City Judge is putting heavy penalties on violators of the liquor laws in that city. Five were sentenced last week. Fines ranging from $50 up to $500, or twelve months in the chain gang. Such as this has more effect than a dozen temperance societies.

Sheriff M. O. Gilmer, of Hall county, last week issued an order remanding J. A. Lyle, deputy sheriff, from office, because he released a man who had signed the bond of a defendant against the sheriff's instructions, but the deputy won't pay any attention to the order.

It has been generally understood that Col. W. A. Charters would be candidate for re-election to the office of solicitor general although we never heard him say so until last week. The Colonel will doubtless have a clear walk over as we have heard of no one else spoken of.

The governor gave the negro who was to have hanged at Savannah last Friday a respite for 30 days a few minutes before the execution was to have taken place. Although the negro was anxious to meet "his God," as negro criminals generally say when to be hung, this news was received with joy by him.

The other day at Hartford, Mich., Gamille, daughter of George W. Chamberlain, was pronounced dead but she came to life in her coffin just before the funeral was to be held. In a few hours she would have been buried. She had been in a comatose condition, but is apparently all right now. No doubt many contrary mother-in-laws have been put away by anxious relatives before life was extinct to smother to death in the coffin.

The Savannah Press endorses Colonel Still because he is a practical business man, successful, enterprising, public spirited. And the Darien Gazette is for him because he is the best man for the place. And adds that the people of lower Georgia will make a great mistake if they fail to make him governor. They can do it if they will only put their shoulders to the wheel. All of which the NUGGET most heartily endorses. It is very important to elect the best man to fill this position and if the people fail to do it they will make a big mistake. The financial bridge of Georgia is in a tottering condition and if it fails to receive the attention of a close watchman and a good engineer it will break down.

Mining Notes.

At the Cora Lee Col. Moore is having a tunnel cut so as to properly drain the mine.

Johnson and Riley are engaged at the Keystone, taking out more of that $87 per ton ore.

After many years of idleness some mining is being done on the Ivey and Lookhart properties.

The Gordon, operated by Roberts and Sons, is still giving satisfactory results with their little mill.

"Choctaw" Davis and Tom Johnson have rigged up some sluice boxes and gone to mining on Tan Yard Branch again.

Only a small force of hands is at work down at the Betz, keeping the water down until spring opens so they can build their new mill.

Peter Duncan now has lot 810 leased. The mine is now idle however, until the steam chest, one side of which cracked, can be repaired.

N. C. Tank is cutting a tunnel on the Stegal property to strike the bottom of the old Major Holt and Thomas leads near Auraria. They will run under the old works about 50 feet.

At the Lumpkin mine Mr. Walker made a splendid clean up last week, leaving quite a handsome sum after all expenses were paid, proving beyond a doubt that the mine will pay since the new developments have been made.

The mining boom here is in sight and by the time spring opens even the natives will be surprised, because it is impossible to keep a good thing down. And the beauty of it is this one will be more permanent than any we have had for years because the most of the operations are to be operated by men with both money and brains.

Things are getting quite lively down about the Briar Patch in mining circles, caused by the rich diggings at this celebrated mine. Numbers of northern visitors have been down inspecting it recently, one of them being Dr. Garvin who after seeing many rich panfuls producing large amounts of gold, proposed to give $10,000 for a small portion of the river at the lower end of the Briar Patch.

County Surveyor Bryson returned from Dawson county last week where he had been to survey off some mining property recently purchased by Mr. Ashley who is going to work the river by dredge boats. Mr. Ashley is going to sink shafts on the bank of the river down to the gravel so as to enable him to ascertain its value and learn how big a delay of money it will require to get the gold.

The rock crusher for the Cavender's Creek mine weighs several thousand pounds which will be run by a small engine. Samples of ore from several thousand acres of property owned by Mr. Jones will be crushed and run through a little stamp mill now in working order for a test which will be a great help to enable the owner to ascertain the value of the ores and what amount of machinery is required to successfully work it and where to put it.

At the Hand more activity is being shown during the past week or so and they on the right course to make some money now. Work has been resumed on the Previtt vein and the tunnel which connects the Benning with the Hand is being cleaned out and the track all replaced so the ore of the former can be transported by electric cars to the Hand mill. The mill is not running now and will not be started until the silver plates sent off to be dressed over are returned. These are the plates mentioned by us last summer as being ruined almost by a western "great mill man", who was at the time receiving $125 per month. A recent test has satisfied the manager that our assertion was correct, by putting in some of the Mary Henry plates by the same number of the others and feeding the batteries with the same kind of ore, cleaning up the plates separately, when those of the Hand mill produced but little over eight ounces and the Mary Henrys more than doubled this amount, causing Mr. Breyman to open his eyes and send the Hand mill plates off for redressing at once.

The large gear wheel of the Dean pump which lifts the water to the Crown Mountain that cracked some time ago and was mended, gave way entirely on Thursday of last week which necessarily shuts down the plant until a new wheel can be obtained. We are informed by the managers that the pump company was requested more than two months ago to replace the broken wheel with a new one. They sent their agent here to make a report but never sent the wheel. Something like a month ago, the order was renewed and also again ten days ago. They now report they will ship the wheel and another that connects with the motor pinion as soon as they can be got at. This is regretted by all as every thing else was running smoothly. The cuts were in condition to get down all the ore both mills could handle, and the quality of ore increasing daily. While the sluicing and milling is suspended the work will go in the shafts so that the miners will not be thrown out of work.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission will hold examinations at several places in each state during March and April, to secure young men and women for the government service. 9,889 persons secured positions last year through these examinations. Probably 10,000 appointments will be made this year. All appointments are made for life and for most positions only a common school education is required. Salaries at appointment vary from $600 to $1200 a year with liberal promotions afterward. Politics is not considered. There is less competition in the southern states than in other parts of the country. This affords a good opportunity for people between 16 and 45 years of age. Those desiring places of this kind can get full information about free by writing to the Columbia Correspondence College, Washington, D. C., and asking for its Civil Service catalogue number three.

Politics will soon begin to warm up and free liquor commence to flow. This is civil rights year, and the negro and white man will drink the candidates liquor together, often from the same vessel.

Repairing Neatly Done

Never thought of such a sign for a medicine did you? Well, it's a good sign for Scott's Emulsion. The body has to be repaired like other things and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine that does it.

These poor bodies wear out from worry, from overwork, from disease. They get thin and weak. Some of the new ones are not well made—and all of the old ones are racked from long usage.

Scott's Emulsion fixes all kinds. It does the work both inside and out. It makes soft bones hard, thin blood red, weak lungs strong, hollow places full. Only the best materials are used in the patching and the patches don't show through the new glow of health.

No one has to wait his turn. You can do it yourself—and the bottle.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St. New York. 50c. and $1. all druggists.

On the first page of this issue you will find all the general bills passed by the last legislature. Look over them and see if you think there is any use of this honorable body meeting so often unless there is business of more importance than anything you will find here. A change will have to take place even if the senate and representatives offices are let out to the lowest bidder to be paid in merchandise like everything else most.

The Commercial bank of Albany was forced to close its doors last week.

Asthma Cure Free!

Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief and Permanent Cure in All Cases.

SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL. WRITE YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS PLAINLY.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails. The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was always a slave, chained with putrid sores throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. Bnai Israel, New York, Jan. 3, 1901. DR. TAFT BROS' MEDICINE CO. Gentlemen: Your Asthmalene is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful. After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthmalene contains no opium, morphine, chloroform or ether. Very truly yours, Rev. Dr. MORRIS WECHELER.

AVON SPRINGS, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1901.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO. Gentlemen: I write this testimony from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th Street, New York. I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease. Yours respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO. Gentlemen: I was troubled with asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have, now purchased your full size bottle, and I am very grateful. I have family of four children and for six years was unable to work. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit. Home address, 235 Livingston st., S. RAPHAEL, 67 East 12th st., City.

TRIAL BOTTLE ABSOLUTELY SENT FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 24, 1902.

The weather man gave us another lile snow Monday night nearly an inch deep.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. M. G. Head, after being quite sick for some weeks, is improving.

Judge Murray left last week for Mississippi where he joined his wife and will go from there to Florida to spend a short time.

If you wish job work done promptly bring it to the Nugget office where it does not require a week or ten days to do a dollar job like it does at some offices.

Gen. Warner has gone north on railroad business and our notion is will be able to bring back some news that will cause you to think almost that you can hear the whistles blow.

Our contemporary, the Signal, will be out this week. The junior editor's mashed thumb is not healed thoroughly yet and if you see any left handed editorials in that paper you may know what caused them.

Last week a warrant was sent here to Marshal Grizzle by Marshal Johnson, of Hiwassee, for Geo. Brown, col., who was charged with running an illicit distillery. The arrest was made and the marshal came in Monday as a witness, but the proof was not sufficient to bind the negro and he was set free again.

It is stated that the family of Joe Rider, residing out in Davis district, has the disease that is called small pox. Churches and all other gatherings in that section should cease until this disease is stamped out. It rarely ever hurts any one but there is no body that wants it, and this is the best way to prevent its spreading.

Last Sunday Dr. Whelchel's little boy was shot in the forehead by Mr. Huff's little boy with an air gun, raising a big black lump in a few minutes. These guns are dangerous. We notice boys shooting them at each other, at cows and most everything else that passes them. The city council should take action and prevent their use in town before some child's eye is put out. We dislike to have any of the childrens pleasures taken away from them but it will be best.

An injunction granted against the sulphur plants at Ducktown, Tenn., on account of the objectionable fumes from the works, may cause the works to close out as the president of the company has notified the manager to close down everything as soon as the injunction is served. This would bring about much distress and suffering by many hundred hands being thrown out of employment, numbers of them being from Lumpkin county. Several years ago when these copper mines closed down the hands looked to Dahlonega in large numbers in search of employment, reducing wages. Thus it will be seen that it does not only injure the section in which the mines are located but the country for many miles around. We hope the matter will be compromised.

As previously stated a committee composed of H. D. Gurley, W. H. C. Tate, Daniel Davis, W. Ordinary Huff as chairman, was recommended by the grand jury at the last term of Lumpkin Superior Court to make some disposition of the present paupers farm and purchase a larger and better one. A few days ago this committee sold the farm to Carolyn Jackson and made arrangements with him to keep the paupers at $5.00 per month, which was a very good arrangement we believed. But it turns out that the committee has no authority to sell the farm at private sale and all the work will have to be done over. Mr. Jackson will have to be paid for his work and things will be in an unsettled condition until the land can be advertised and sold publicly.

Work is moving right along on the part of the Electric Railway Company.

Bear in mind that T. S. Smith keeps a supply of all kinds of goods. Cotton seed hulls and meal a specialty.

All kinds of country produce commands a good price in Dahlonega yet, causing the farmers to wear pleasant smiles.

Gen. Warner left for a trip to the north last Friday accompanied by Mrs. Warner. The General intended going some days ago but got delayed.

The parties who captured Rob Long, the murderer of Henry Clark, will soon get the reward of $100 from the state. Also the $100 private reward.

Some one asked Virgo Moose the other day if he was going to be vaccinated. His reply was, "No, I was vaccinated and baptized both when I was little and neither one took."

You who have been sending your orders off for merchandise and other things will find some food for thought by reading an article on another page headed, "When Was It, My Friends."

Read the Atlanta Journal's offer elsewhere. You can get the Semi-Weekly Journal, the Nugget and either one of a dozen premiums all for the small amount of $1.75 per year. Send in early as this proposition may be withdrawn at any time.

Work closed on the 15th at the Gorge plant until the weather becomes more settled. They are ready to commence the dam but the water is too deep and cold to begin this work just now. Mr. Evans is busy sawing the 200,000 feet of lumber for it.

By the hands failing to promptly clean out the Neisler's fort across the Chestate river after the freshet made it very inconvenient for people beyond the river to get to Dahlonega, owing to the bridge being damaged so that it is impassible. The ford is all right now.

A petition is being signed by many of the citizens of Davis' district asking for the establishment of a postoffice at the old Henry Watkins place where the Hutcherson boys are doing business. Without this many of them have to come to Dahlonega some six or seven miles after their mail. Let it be established by all means.

The department will soon be asked to establish a free mail delivery running from Dahlonega via Bearden's bridge, Garland, Half Way, in this county and down to Murrayville in Hall and back by Londons. This, if established, will cause several offices to be discontinued and the people along the line to be furnished with a daily mail.

There being no money in the county treasury to pay Col. Charters, the $1,000 borrowed from him some time ago, caused Judge Huff last Saturday to have to secure the money from H. D. Gurley in order to carry out his agreement with the Colonel. To do this it had to pass through county treasurer J. B. Brown's hands, who was entitled to $25, but he wouldn't charge it and the county is this much more better off on account of the gentleman's liberality.

No doubt Lumpkin county produces some of the smartest girls in Georgia who help to keep things prosperous by their active work. We know of one family in particular but only a few miles from Dahlonega where the girls help their father do every thing—burn coal, build fences, hoe corn and when it is raining in the summer they cut fruit to dry and any thing else that can be done while it is wet. And in the winter they card, weave and entertain their visitors with music on spinning wheels instead of a piano or organ. They are healthy, prosperous and happy, and when a young man calls on Sunday either one of them is strong enough to pick him up with one hand and set him over in side at the most convenient place.

Query: Why does that married woman keep up weekly correspondence with a cadet?

Besides Solicitor General Charters attorneys Bryson and Lilly are attending Hall Superior Court this week.

Just received this week a new line of stationery of various kinds, besides a cheap lot of type writer paper at this office.

The Randa postoffice has recently moved to C. N. Fitts, one mile from its former place, and Mr. Fitts is acting as postmaster.

Don't forget our liberal offer to the Nugget, Twice-a-week Journal and premium, all for $1.75. Send in the money at once while it is open.

Just printed a lot of constables blank advertisements, bonds for title, etc., to add to our other list of blanks. Come or send to the Nugget office when in need of any.

J. B. Witt, of Dahlonega, has accepted a book keeper's place at the business house of Geo. P. Estes in Gainesville. He commenced the discharge of his duties last Monday.

The anti-temperance union's strength was increased last Sunday by some new recruits. But the kind used was pure and its effects paid the mayor and marshal nothing.

We don't think that it is beneficial to the soul for a person to attend church on the Sabbath with a wet and partially decayed one. Their conduct is causing much comment both by men and women and even the little children. No church can prosper where its members are allowed to spree and curse like a portion of them do in Dahlonega—more especially when some of them are official members.

The parties in Dahlonega who were wishing that Mrs. Nation, the bar room smasher, would visit this place in the interest of the temperance movement, need not expect the old lady for a while, if ever, for at this time she is a little out of order and can't transact any business on account of losing one of her right toes the other day while flourishing a large hatchet at Topeka, Kansas, which she received recently as a present from an eastern manufacturing firm, dropped it, and the keen edge of the instrument severed the large toe of her right foot.

Not many days ago R. F. Whelchel of this place, received a letter from a gentleman in Alabama enquiring about the prospect of a railroad to Dahlonega and whether the Pratt copper mine in this county was any good or not. Mr. Whelchel informed him that it was intended to complete the railroad this year, but he knew very little about the copper mine as he had not been at it for years and suggested that the stranger come and see for himself. In a few days here he came. Soon after arriving he went over to the mine and made a thorough examination of the ore and the course in which it ran, stating that he represented a Chicago company. So there is no telling what the result of his visit will be. A railroad would cause many industries to open up in our county and this is one of them.

The following facts clipped from an exchange, should be read by those who do not patronize newspapers. It says:

One bright friend came in the other day with what he thought was a conundrum.

"Why is a newspaper like a woman?"

The various answers were.

"Because both have to be known to be appreciated."

"Because it has to have some one to run it."

"Because both are good advertising mediums."

"Because both have to be pressed."

"Because it sometimes changes its dress and tells tales."

The correct answer is: Because every man should have one of his own, and not be running after his neighbors'.

The senate has confirmed the appointment of postmaster Tate at Dahlonega.

Lewis Prewitt, who was stabbed by Luther Walker just before Christmas, has recovered so as to be able to be up and out a little.

In connection with their mercantile business, Tate, Littlefield & Co. are running a feed and livery stable where the public can be accommodated at reasonable prices.

After the bookkeeper left the Union Company's store Miss Josephine Myers took charge of this department, and besides keeping it up has done all the stenography work of the Consolidated Company.

In order to be on the safe side many of our citizens are being vaccinated so they can travel both far and near should they see proper and be in no danger. It costs 50 cents each and the physicians are highly pleased with the actions of the people.

There is a bright future in store for Dahlonega and Lumpkin county. The new mining developments and the building of a railroad to this place will cause many new industries to spring up and help every man, woman and child within her bounds and cause prosperity to spread throughout this whole mountain country.

Some of the members of the church in turning over a new leaf this year must have seized a wet and partially decayed one. Their conduct is causing much comment both by men and women and even the little children. No church can prosper where its members are allowed to spree and curse like a portion of them do in Dahlonega—more especially when some of them are official members.

You will find pickled beans at M. G. Heads.

Married this week: M. J. A. Beck to Miss Alice Waiden.

Those wanting lumber can get it by calling on M. G. Head.

The Walnut postoffice has recently been moved nearer this way. It is now at A. J. Ashes.

Mining news from all parts of the county is desired but we want it before it gets two or three weeks old.

You need have no fears of coming to Dahlonega now. We neither have small pox or scarlet fever in town. Charlie McAfie's wife and children who had the latter are well, the house will be fumigated in a few days and all danger will be over.

Had the weather been favorable the pillar at the new bridge at Neisler's Ford would have been completed this week and ready for the public. However it will not be long now. After so long a time the ford at that place has been cleared of sand and all can go or come that way now that desire.

An effort will be made to have a rural mail delivery established running from Dahlonega up in through Crumby's district and back by Porter Springs. This would be a very acceptable arrangement for many of the citizens who are now very inconvenient to postoffices. Let us have this and the other one that will be asked for in this county by all means.

Postmaster Tate makes a request for persons to stamp their letters before dropping them into the postoffice. Coppers are generally dropped into the box with the letters when there is no stamp but when one is accidentally mailed without either coppers or stamps and the money is put in for another letter the postmaster has no way of knowing which letter to stamp.

The so called small pox scare is over and the quarantine against the Abbot house will be raised tomorrow or next day. It has been fourteen or fifteen days since the young man Harbin left the premises with whatever kind of a disease he had, and no one else has taken it. If it was small pox it is the lightest case we ever heard of, because the patient never had to take his bed.

When I'm asleep I'm dreaming about you,
When I'm awake I take no rest,
Every minute's just like an hour,
Oh the pain that's in my breast.

This is the condition a certain young man of Lumpkin county was in just before Christmas. He had fallen in love with a young lady of Dahlonega who, agreed to have him and the day was fixed for the wedding at this place. In this section where a couple are too poor to belong to the highfalootin' society and the young man is not able to give his intended bride a wedding ring she is tendered with as costly a dress as the lover is able to stand financially. This presentation—a $5.00 pattern—had been made. The young man had determined to do what all men of his age going to take unto themselves a wife do, quit drinking, cursing and every thing else that is naughty. A few days before the happy event was to take place the young man decided to make a call, when low and behold his loved one ran from him, causing his happiness to turn to grief. It was a terrible shock, one which was almost unbearable. Another young man more convenient, had severed the ties of love between them on the girls part and gained her affections. This poor broken hearted disappointed lover could neither eat or sleep for several days causing him to get as thin as a church mouse, and every air gun in town had to be bid for fear that he might attempt to commit suicide. Upon receiving an order from him the dress pattern was turned over to another fellow who had bought it. This unfortunate lover is gradually recovering and in a low and mournful tone sings:

I had a loving cousin who married in his prime,
He has a house and a lot of his own,
And here I am yet, no one can I get,
I'm tired of living here alone.

One of our merchants is buying up peas to ship to Macon, Ga.

Mr. McMullan has been up on a visit this week to his daughter Mrs. Vickory.

Col. Baker has been employed by Robt. Long to defend him in his murder case.

For sale cheap at the Nugget office a Franklin mailer. Has been in use only about a month.

One of our business men has adopted a new plan of advertising by having his advertisement printed on a calender and then selling it for ten cents.

The big boiler for the Lond mine in White seems to be a troublesome piece of machinery to haul. They commenced Monday and only got it some two or three hundred yards in three days.

The quarantine against the Abbot house will be raised next Sunday and the half dozen cadets who have been housed up near two weeks at that place will certainly feel like a bird turned out of a cage.

Charlie Keer has been appointed permanent receiver of the drug store of W. E. Matthews at this place, who has 40 days to sell all the goods he can to the best advantage, after that time they will be publicly sold to the highest bidder.

Last Wednesday Wm. Woody brought in a fine 75 pound doe which his twelve-year-old boy killed the day before with a rifle at a distance of 80 yards. He is quite small to kill deer but still he did it. This beats shooting parlor rifles.

There is an axe thief who visits Dahlonega and those wishing to disappoint him should take their axes in. A number have been stolen recently, one of our citizen losing two in one night. He is not going to use them but gets them to sell.

Young Mr. Jenkins, who works over at Crown Mountain, badly sprained his foot in scuffling while returning from work some days ago rendering him unable to do any thing except nurse it since. But it is improvise and he will likely be able for duty by next week.

Most all of our citizens rejoiced when they learned by the daily papers last Wednesday that President Roosevelt had decided to turn "Pink" Morton down and put a white man in the Athens postoffice. We are not troubled with colored postmasters here and don't want any other place to be. There are plenty of good white republicans to fill every postoffice in the United States.

Already this year Atlanta has had some 25 or 30 fires. The Constitution stated that last Tuesday was the first day the fire company had not been called out. The fires generally start from sparks and the roofs were wet that day is why the firemen had a rest. This should cause the people of Dahlonega to burn out their chimneys every time it rains when needed, then there will be but little danger of fires here.

Geo. J. D. Currie, the humorist and dramatic reader, will be the next lecturer on the program of the Dahlonega Lyceum Course, who will appear at the college chapel next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. He is recommended as an entertainer who can be funny in good taste and if you fail to hear him you will miss something that is real good. The next will be Edward H. Frye on Feb. 17.

Last Friday at a special meeting of the city council it was decided to appoint a night watch for two and a half months. It was made known to the public and applicants requested to send in their application by 7 o'clock the same evening at another meeting when the election resulted in favor of Geo. Jenkins for $24 per month who went on duty at once. His main duty is to watch for fire, but is authorized to make arrests. We believe George will faithfully discharge his duties which is a great relief to every citizen.

Good Advice to Young Men.

The following epigrammatical periods are from President Porter, Yale college: "Young men, you are the recipients of your own fortunes. Rely on your own strength of body and soul. Take for your star self reliance. Inscribe on your banner: 'Luck is a fool. Pluck is a hero.' Don't take too much advice. Keep at the helm and steer your own ship and remember that the art of commanding is to take a fair share of the work. Think well of yourself. Strike out. Assume your own position. Put potatoes in a cart, go over a rough road, and the small ones goes to the bottom. Rise above the envious and jealous. Five above the mark you intend to hit. Energy, invincible determination, with a right motive are the levers that move the world. Don't swear. Don't deceive. Don't marry until you can support a wife. Be civil. Read the papers. Advertise your business. Make money and do good with it. Love your God and fellow men. Love truth and virtue. Love your country and obey its laws."

His Sweetheart's Letter.

A colonel, on his tour of inspection, unexpectedly entered the drill room, when he came across a couple of soldiers, one of them reading a letter aloud, while the other was listening, and, at the same time stopping up the ears of the reader, says "Tit Bits."

"What are you doing here?" the puzzled officer inquired of the former. "You see, colonel, I'm reading to Atkins, who can't read himself, a letter which has arrived by this afternoon's post from his sweetheart."

"And you, Atkins, what in all the world are you doing?"

"Please, colonel, I am stopping up Murphy's ears with both hands, because I don't mind his reading my sweetheart's letter, but I don't want him to hear a single word of what she has written."

Success Due to Advertising.

The Philadelphia Record tells an interesting story about the success of the largest general store in Tacoma, Wash. The proprietors have been in business in a small way, lived economically and saved every dollar to buy space in the newspapers. Now their advertising contracts call for an aggregate space of 107 pages a year. The manager of the concern says they would as soon think of going out of business as of reducing their advertising space the experience of that firm is the common experience of all extensive advertisers. A man might as well take down his business signs as to stop advertising, as might a firm.

A bale of cotton which sells at forty dollars, may be spun into the coarsest of thread, and is then worth eighty dollars, if manufactured into a certain grade of goods. We raise cotton and ship it to New York at forty dollars per bale, and buy it back at five hundred dollars per bale paying transportation both ways. The same thing is true with every principal product of the state, and we will remain hampered until there comes a reformation.—Marietta Journal.

Although there is a good deal of cotton raised in Lumpkin county a bale of it brought to our city would create as large a crowd as a big dancing bear and a monkey. It all goes to the railroad. This will change however, when the electric railroad is completed to Dahlonega. Then Dahlonega will present more life, causing every thing to move up on time.

The Semi Weekly Journal, Atlanta, Ga., has inaugurated an agents' contest for the months of January and February, 1902. They are going to divide among their agents $160 in cash to be paid on the first of March, $50 being the first prize. In December they gave $100 to fifteen agents. suffers no more than the faithful horse that is tortured with Spavins, Swiney, Harness Sore, Sprains, etc. Most horse owners know this and apply the kind of sympathy that befalls, known far and wide as

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

Never fails—not even in the most aggravated cases. Cures caked udder in cows quicker than any known remedy. Hardly a disease peculiar to muscle, skin or joints that cannot be cured by it.

Mexican Mustang Liniment

Is the best remedy on the market for Wind Galls, Sprains and Skin Lumps. It keeps horses and mules in condition.

Beyond this beautiful and rippling stream, just over the grassy knoll, there blossoms a rare and richly tinted flower. They tell us that it may be hushed to life at the touch of an angel's kiss, and its rosy flush from a burning star. Beyond the pathless mountains that lift their blue peaks in the fading distance they tell us there is a charming that drinks the diamond dew of morning and bathes in the liquid sun-beams, clad in a verdure of everlasting green and dotted all over with flowers of every hue and shade.

Beyond the blue waves of the pathless ocean they tell us there is a clime from which the mellow sunlight of spring never departs, that it is laden with the songs of birds of note and plumage, and peace, ease and plenty rule the lives of the people that never heard of war or pestilence. Beyond the curtain of darkness that hangs over the gloomy night there dwells a picture of morning, a picture of new life—that seems to wake and move and breathe away.

Which Was it, My Friend?

Who sympathized with you when your little girl was sick? Was it your home merchant, or was it Sears & Roebuck, of Chicago? Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and no money? Was it Montgomery Ward and Co., or was it your home merchant? When you want to raise money for the church or for some needy persons in town do you write to the Fair store in Chicago or do you go to your home merchant? How much does Seigel, Cooper & Co., give towards keeping up the sidewalks of the town, or paying the minister's salary? When you were sick how many nights did John Smythe, the mail order octopus, sit up with you? When your loved one was buried was it your home merchant who dropped the tear of sympathy and uttered the word of cheer up, or was it the Cash Buyers' Union? Think this matter over, it is well worthy of careful consideration.—Shelby County News.

Consequences.

A woman threw a paper out on the roadside, and the consequences were a buggy ruined, a young horse spoiled, a child crippled for life.

A man lit a match in a barn, and the consequences were the barn was burned, the stock roasted, the grain a total loss.

A boy drank a glass of whisky, and the consequences were spoiled career, a depraved character and a ruined life forever.

A girl said "yes" to a fast young man, and the consequences a poverty-stricken home ignorant vicious children and a broken heart.

Relic Hunters at the Milburn House.

"The Milburn house in Buffalo and the grounds about it have been so preyed upon by relic hunters since President McKinley's death that a police guard has been placed there for protection," said a Buffalo man the other day. "Plants were pulled up, limbs of trees broken off, and anything that could be carried away has been stolen by the seekers of souvenirs. Some of the worst of the relic hunters even tried to break off pieces of brick from the corners of the house. The guard was placed about the house as a last resort, when it was found that nothing else would keep the crowds within bounds."—New York Times.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JAN. 31, 1902.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga., P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Tate for Congress.

Kinsey for Judge.

Estill for Governor.

Charters for Solicitor General, is the way we feel about it.

The government prison will open in Atlanta February 4th.

While Col. Terrell is out shooting into voters with his political speeches Col. Estill is on the still hunt apparently bagging "more game."

Booth Tucker, the Salvation Army leader, has to come to Atlanta to save 1,000 souls. Wonder if he expects to remain there until the job is completed?

Solicitor N. J. Norman of the county court of Liberty tendered his resignation last week to Governor Candler without giving any reasons for it. Maybe he has a gubernatorial bee in his cap too.

Good lady, be your dog and prepare your baby so it can be kissed by the candidates. They will soon be on hand loving every body, and be careful that none of them kiss you.

Big Jim Parker of Buffalo, who claimed to have prevented the president from being shot the third time, visited Macon, Ga., last week and the colored people of that city almost worshiped him.

Judge Broyles, of Atlanta, is finding some things for ye idle hands to do. Six negroes and two whites were given 30 days each one day last week, causing a decrease in the loafing business considerably in that city.

Judge Estes, of this circuit, has adopted a new rule, by requiring all bailiffs and other officers to take off their hats in court. This is hard on the bald headed bailiffs. They will either have to wear a wig or suffer with cold during the winter season.

Although we have a thriving temperance society in Dahlonega apparently, with a large membership, no prohibition candidate for the office of governor or president ever receives more than four votes in the county. Now one of those voters is dead and gone and if Mr. Guerry gets three votes in Lumpkin county he will be doing well.

In Hall Superior Court last week Judge Estes ordered deputy sheriff J. A. Lyle, who had refused to obey the orders of the sheriff in vacating the jail and turning over the keys, to do so at once, as any contract they had made before the election had no effect. Mr. Lyle turned over the keys but refused to vacate the jail. This shows how people love office and how they hate to give one up.

The other day after Hon. Dupont Guerry, the prohibition candidate for governor, concided his speech at Cartersville, Rev. Sam Jones rose and stated that the speaker was a clean man and that he had understood that Col. Terrell was also clean. This is very nice language but doesn't help out a distressed candidate. It reminds us of the gal who told her lover that he was mighty pretty but she couldn't kiss him.

In his announcement Col. Terrell, candidate for governor, touched the pension business in a very indefinite manner by saying: "None but deserving Confederate veterans and should receive pensions from the state." While Col. Estill makes it plain to all in the following language: "I am in favor of restricting pensions entirely to indigent soldiers and their widows. Confederate veterans may be deserving, but still able to earn their living, and such should not receive the state's bounty." In this assertion every interested tax payer can't help but agree with Col. Estill.

Additional Local Chat.

Charlie Kerr, receiver appointed to dispose of the remainder of W. E. Matthews drugs and medicines, made bond last week and opened out at once to carry out the instructions of the court.

Bob Allen was arrested this week by the sheriff on a warrant sent down from White county four years old, charging him with misdemeanor. He had only recently returned from Mississippi and was at work on the railroad dam.

Miss Roxie Worley's health has long since failed her. The ladie's strength is gradually growing weaker, having been unable to be out of her room for many months, all this time being compelled to be under the watchful eyes of some of her relatives.

Gen. Warner passed through the city last Saturday enroute to the West, where he goes to purchase material for the Gainesville & Dahlonega Electric Railroad. While here he contracted with Grant & Co. of Alto to furnish the company 8,000 cross-ties for the street car system, to be delivered early in the spring. He also contracted with another man for 2,000 cross-ties for the same purpose.—Eagle.

The Lumpkin Land and Improvement Co. has already disposed of four of its town lots to parties wishing to build residences, being John E. Anderson, J. E. Beck, J. H. Moore and G. D. Bruce. This 40 acre lot used to be known as the Mahew lot, which has been run off into city lots recently. It is a very desirable place to build in and in the near future we expect to see many nice residences spring up in that part of town.

Many curious spectators gathered on the public square looking at a wagon load of wood on Saturday drawn by a mule and an ox. We purchased the wood and the teamster soon wended his way homeward in a trotting gate and the crowd dispersed. Photographer Bruce took a snap shot at the outfit with the driver astride of the ox and the photograph will be placed among other interesting pictures at his gallery.

The patrons of "The Villa," Dahlonega's leading hostelry, have been treated during the past week with an abundance of wild game, consisting of venison, quail, rabbits, squirrel, and turkey. On Wednesday of this week, the energetic management secured for the patrons several wild turkeys, killed up in the mountains, and cooked and served as they are, are welcome additions to the already splendid table service of this hotel. It is no wonder then, that "The Villa" is attracting the general attention of the traveling and home public. The Nugget congratulates Mr. Thomson on his deserved success.

On Tuesday afternoon of last week our sanctum was visited by our friend and patron, W. M. Fisher, of Columbus, O., accompanied by his son Kirt Fisher. Mr. Fisher has been a weekly reader of the Nugget since June 1890, and he paid in advance till June 1903, which proves that he likes the Nugget because it gives correct reports of the mines in which he is largely interested because he said so. Mr. Fisher expressed himself as being highly pleased with the progress that is being made by the manager of the Consolidated Co. Mr. Breyman, the manager, has hung on faithfully until he has convinced his associates that the mines will pay them here if properly managed. Other gentlemen interested, accompanied Mr. Fisher on his trip, all of whom we are glad to see in our city again.

J. S. Davis, a colored divine came up from Gainesville a few days ago and posted a notice at the court house requesting that every body attend services at the colored church Monday night with their eyes open and hear him explain all about Melchisedec, and the night following he would show them the soul of man. The first night his congregation was too slim for a collection to be taken up, and the evening following was about the same, but it being money that he wanted begged a quarter or two. It seems that this two hundred pounder is an odd rooster who goes about preaching and collecting. If the churches pay their regular pastor they will do well without any division of the money among such fellows as this who ought to be at work earning his meat and bread.

Stargel's Reply to Bowen.

Ed. Nugget:— Will you please allow me space in your paper to reply to an article in last week's Nugget in which Marion Bowen is author of, according to the facts given me?

Marion Bowen has lied wilfully and knowingly. Prompted either by cowardice or a malignant disposition to lie.

The facts are as follows: Billups went into Parks & Bowens store house. While in there the talk arose about a shirt, (a sweater). After putting on the shirt Billups offered him 40 cents for it. "No," said Bowen. "50 cents is the price. I want the money or the shirt one." Billups said, "By—d I am able to pay you or pull the shirt off." And off it comes. Billups threw the shirt on the counter and said, "You want to run the ten per cent on me again." "It's right," said Bowen. "You are a d— liar," said Billups. Then Bowen drew his knife and opened it—placing it in his pocket. "Billups then struck open handed towards him. Then Bowen drew his knife in a stabbing position and said, "I'll stab you." Billups said, "You cut me or attempt to and I'll shoot your d— heart out." Then Bowen went to the desk where he usually kept his pistol. On failure to find it he left the house. These are the facts that will be established in court.

MILES STARGEL.

A Card of Thanks.

MR. EDITOR:

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the good christian ladies of Dahlonega for the many kind deeds that they done for us during the time that we were housed up with scarlet fever. We certainly appreciate their kindness.

MR. AND MRS. CHAS. McAFEE.

As a result of a terrible mine disaster at Lost Creek, Iowa, last Friday 21 persons were killed and many wounded. Debris were blown out of a shaft 200 feet deep.

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference.

Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible.

Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion.

Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York, 30c and $1. all druggists.

The Armor Packing Co. is going to erect a building at Blue Ridge, Ga.

Candidates for county offices in Dawson county, have already commenced announcing.

If all the counties are like Lumpkin Hon. J. J. Kinsey, of White will be elected by a big majority.

The checks amounting to $558,000 were mailed last Friday by State School Commissioner Glenn to the county commissioners of the state to pay the teachers for their last two months of last year.

The state of Missouri is having to buy corn this year. Recently a thousand car loads were on the track for Kansas City causing a blockade as it could not be delivered as fast as it had been ordered. It came from Iowa, Nebraska, Dakota and Illinois, commanding good prices.

Bro. Thomas of the Dawsonville Advertiser, must have been asleep when Gov Candler filled the attorney general's place because on the 25th, several days after the appointment had been made the editor suggested the name of Col. H. H. Perry of Gainesville as a worthy man.

The spring term of the N. G. A. College begins to-morrow (Saturday) and a good attendance is expected.

"The South Carolina and Interstate and West Indian Exposition will be held in the city of Charleston from December 1st, 1901, to June 1st, 1902. There is no place on this continent where the climatic conditions are so favorable for a Mid Winter Exposition.

Out of door life in Charleston during the winter season is a perpetual life.

Flowers bloom in the open gardens throughout the year, and a bowl of roses on the Christmas dinner table is not an unusual sight.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 31, 1902.

The sun showed itself today for the first time in six days.

Dr. Hitchcock, of Bolton, Ga., was in Dahlonega for a few hours last Monday.

There are cases of small pox in Nimbleshill, Davis and Porter Springs districts.

On Henry Edmonsons return from Atlanta he got into Gainesville's house. Cause: Whisky.

John Nix, aged 63, residing in 12 miles of Dahlonega, where he has remained all his life, never was in the city during these many past years.

Dr. Howard reports his health improving. He is up and walking about and hopes to be restored to his usual health soon. However, his eyesight is no better.

The speakers selected by the Deora Society for the champion debate commencement are J. R. Henley, of Jasper, Ga., and G. B. Harbin, of Dawsonville, Ga.

Mrs. R. M. Rex, after an absence of some weeks at her old home in the north, returned to Dahlonega last week and joined her husband who has been located here for some time.

During the absence of the rest of the firm Frank Meaders is assisted in the store with his new boy which made its appearance last Monday, causing the father to be quite happy.

Dr. Head has purchased a beautiful lot from M. G. Head, 40x80 adjoining W. C. Thomas, fronting Choice street, on which he expects to erect an office and "be at home."

The pastor of the Presbyterian church requests us to state that services at this church will be held every Sabbath in the month except the first. Sunday School every Sunday with Prof. B. P. Gaillard as superintendent.

The small pox seems to be all over Georgia. It has recently broke out in the lunatic asylum and Judge Huff has been notified that no parties will be received unless they can show good signs of recent vaccination.

Our physicians should not use the 200 vaccine points furnished by the state except where parties are totally unable to pay for being vaccinated as the supreme court says that none can be furnished by the county.

Oscar Roberts, while up on a visit has tweek from Gainesville, was turned over by his bondsman and lodged in jail. Oscar is charged with cruelty to animals, the bill being returned at the last term of Lumpkin Superior Court.

Last Monday the house of Charlie McAfee, whose family have recently recovered from the scarlet fever, was thoroughly fumigated and the patients turned at large after several weeks of close confinement. So now there is no scarlet fever in Dahlonega.

Miss Florence McAfee left for Atlanta on a visit Tuesday to be present at the grand military opening. Miss Earl McCoy and Miss Elvira Smith accompanied Miss Florence. Miss McCoy goes to her former home in Jefferson, Ga.

For the second time Judge Huff has been notified that small pox were at three different houses in Nimbleshill district, namely: John M. Stone and family, Lewis M. Wells and John Etrus, and that the parties were not trying to keep it from spreading. This caused the ordinary to send out a notice notifying all parties where it is to remain at home otherwise he will place a guard at each place at the expense of the parties where they are able to foot the bill, and where they are not able to do this will move them to a pest house and have it guarded at the expense of the county as the law directs. This applies to all other places in the county having the disease.

Col. Price has been absent from the city several days this week.

Congressman Tate's government seeds for the public have been received at the various offices in this county.

Among the many new postmasters appointed last week in Georgia, was C. N. Fitts, at Randa, in this county.

W. H. C. Tate, the recent newly appointed postmaster at this place, has made his bond and forwarded the same.

At J. F. Moores you will find a lot of clothing that are going regardless of cost. Also good bargains in shoes.

Dahlonega has two first class hotels and Gainesville only one. We can boast of being this much ahead of our sister city.

Parties writing letters desired to be published in the Nugget must send their names, not to appear in print but simply to protect us.

Some of our citizens have been down to Atlanta this week attending the U. S. Court. Some as defendants and others as witnesses.

The weather for the past week has been so wet and sloppy that but few farmers came to town causing the merchants to look quite blue.

Last Monday "Choctaw" Davis, Henry Roberts and G. H. McGuire left for Young Harris for the purpose of developing some mining property near that place.

The workmen have been unable to make much headway on the bridge pillars at Neisler's Ford and it will be some days yet before the bridge is ready for travelers.

B. R. Meaders, who left some time ago with a drove of mules and horses for the lower market, has about sold out. Frank Meaders will leave with a car load in a short time.

The sixteen year-old son of A. J. Dockery killed four wild turkeys Wednesday—three at one shot, all weighing 26 pounds after being dressed, realizing him $3.60. The father killed one on Tuesday before weighing 25 pounds dressed.

The little girl that died in Atlanta the second day after she was vaccinated need not cause our citizens any alarm whatever who have already or are going to receive the same treatment. A close examination by a physician says the girl died of heart trouble and not from vaccination.

First of the week while we were having warm rains in Dahlonega the people of the west were almost freezing. Trains in Nebraska were blocked by snow and traffic delayed, while in Kansas many cattle froze. The south is the garden spot of the world. Come and see and be convinced.

We notice that W. M. Smith, a graduate of the N. G. A. College as well as a graduate of last year's law class of the University of Georgia, has just returned to Atlanta after a seven months tour of the United States on a bicycle. Mr. Smith, after he rests up a little from his thousands of miles trip, will open out a law office in Atlanta.

Three more cases of small pox have developed at the Abbot house, being Patterson, Stokes and Abbot, three college cadets. They are not sick enough to be kept in bed but they have the disease all the same. This is the place where young Harbin broke out some weeks ago, having contracted the disease while spending Christmas at home in Dawson county. In a few more days the quarantine against this house would have been raised by the city authorities and the boys set free. The house is in the outskirts of the city and no danger of any one catching it unless they go to the place and no sensible person is going to do that. There are yet three more persons at this residence who have not had the disease—Mrs. Abbot and two students. The two latter were vaccinated a few years ago and may be safe.

Garden seeds in bulk at J. F. Moores.

Do you want to rent a house in Dahlonega? If so apply to M. J. Williams.

M. J. Williams has purchased the residence down at Machanessville formerly occupied by W. R. Crisson.

Jim Grizzle, of Nimbleshill district, was bound over this week for being engaged in running an illicit distillery some time since.

Every school teacher needs the map of Georgia offered as a premium with the Nugget and Atlanta Semi-Weekly Journal.

Last week Ed. Sullins, Jr., and W. A. Sullins were captured in an illicit distillery in this county. Both were bound over by Col. Baker.

We are turning out some nice letter heads, envelopes and other work. If you need any thing of this kind come right along and we will fit you up with what you want upon short notice.

We notice that a lot of furniture manufactured in White county is being sold in Dahlonega, nevertheless we have just as fine timber in this county as there is in White. Haydon't got a furniture manufacturer with as much energy. That's all.

On Thursday evening of last week Mr. Charlie Roberts was wed to Miss Ethel, the eldest daughter of Mr. W. J. Lovelace of Dahlonega by Squire W. J. Worley. We extend to the happy couple our best wishes for their welfare in life.

The weather man in Atlanta said that the western blizzard would strike us Monday night or Tuesday morning sure. But it didn't come. If he doesn't quit deceiving us we will get a blow gun and establish an observatory for the benefit of the public ourselves.

The injunction against the Ducktown Copper Mine Co., spoken of by us in last weeks issue, will not be served. And those being injured will have to commence suit for damages. And the operations will not close out. This will be good news to our Lumpkin county citizens who have friends and relatives at work there.

On next Monday night the city council will meet again in regular session and endeavor to elect a marshal, having failed at the January meeting on account of either one of the applicants failing to receive the number of votes required. We have a good body and we feel confident that they will make a wise selection, which is very necessary for no body of councilmen could effect any good with a sorry marshal. It would be like a man trying to kill a snake with a rotten corn stalk.

B. R. Meaders & Sons are offering some unusual bargains while the goods last. A good ladies shoe 90c, childrens 49c, mens $1.05. Good meat 10c, Arbuckles coffee 2 for 25. And to show you that we are selling cheaper than any one and that our goods are first class, we have sold to merchants in Gainesville in the past 30 days over $50 worth of goods that some people would have you think are shabby and second handed, but call and judge for yourselves. Always glad to see you whether you buy or not.

Tuesday night in the absence of Frank Griffin some of his family heard some one coming down stairs in another room barefooted. Mrs. Griffin struck a light and went to see. After looking all around she went to a closet door partially open when some one on the inside pulled it too. Her boy jerked it open and upon seeing a negro with uplifted hands the lad fell back and screamed. Mrs. Griffin jerked the room door too, looked it and all the inmates screamed. Constableman Frank Jones and the night watchman were soon at the scene, but the negro had left the closet, ran up the steps, went out at a window and down a column the way he entered.

Look at our advertised list of blanks and see if you need any of them.

John Southard, after remaining here but a short while, has moved his family this week near Buford, Ga.

How is it that some of those who pretend to be the most religious are so fearful of death, if they wish to change climates?

We will close out our clubbing rates with the Atlanta Semi-Weekly Journal on the 27th of February. If you wish to get these papers at a reduced price send in before that time.

The other day a farmer came to town with a load of meal, onions and apples. Several merchants gathered around and commenced bidding against each other until he got $1.00 per bushel all round for his load. It was fun for the merchants but severe on their customers.

Mr. Currie's lecture here last Saturday evening was well received. He is a wonderful elocutionist and all his selections were new and bright and perfectly delightful to the large audience. Those who enjoy fun displayed in good taste should not fail to hear Mr. Currie every time an opportunity is offered.

Some days ago as Sam Castleberry, col., started down Aunt Cinda Holt's well after a 25 cents hat, he fell a considerable distance into about ten feet of water. The way that negro called for help can better be imagined than described. And the water in his throat made a similar noise to that of a big gentleman frog in the spring of the year.

In another column will be found a letter from Miles Stargel in reply to Mr. Bowen concerning what he said about his brother in the previous issue. Now that both sides have had their say so we will have to close our columns to them about this trouble and let it be decided by the courts. They might write columns after columns and never do it.

In ex-Mayor Price's annual message to the city council, or we might say to the people, he reconsidered his second action and entered the hog and cattle clause, by recommending the honorable body to force cows and other cattle to be kept up both day and night, and that no hogs be allowed within the corporate limits of Dahlonega, because he says that most of the filth in the city comes from those two sources. It is a little singular to us that some men having plenty and enjoying all the luxuries of life forget the interests of those who are less fortunate. And what is still stranger, that the Colonel will go to church and ask the Lord to bless the poor, the needy and the distressed and at the same time make a recommendation, which if carried out, would cause children to cry for milk and take away some of the necessities of life from the households of the poor. Such actions are two inconsistent and no doubt often causes the Lord to turn a deaf ear to the appeals made to Him in the interest of the poor because it is done as a mere form and apparently not in reality. The present members of the city council are too broad minded to carry out any such instructions, for they well know that the people have complied with the hog ordinance prepared or suggested by a majority of physicians, and that if citizens were forced to keep up their cows the year round not more than a dozen in the city could do it. Yes, they are a sensible body of men who do not expect to make a flower garden out of Dahlonega all sprinkled with cologne. But on the other hand will look after the interest and welfare of every resident in it. The law requires the out going mayor to make such recommendations as he sees proper to the new council only and the Colonel having it appear in the Signal together with his picture leads us to believe that he has retired from politics, for no man in favor of such laws as these could be elected to the office of bailiff.

Mining Notes.

On the first page will be found an interesting mining article.

All who have seen that big rich gold rock of Wash Jenkins are wondering where it came from.

Johnson and Riley made another clean up last week of ore taken from the Fishtrap, results being as usual, $37 per ton.

The Roberts mine is giving entire satisfaction. Frequent clean ups are being made which show what the operators are doing.

Bud Odum and Bony Tank are getting fine prospects on the Stegall property. Lookout, they are going to open up something very rich.

Frank Bruce is looking for a party of Louisville people to take hold of the Whim Hill property and start up work. This is fine property.

J. H. Summerow has opened up some rich veins on his property near Auraria. Some ore that he uncovered a few days ago is just speckled with gold.

The gold mining interest is not only reviving in Lumpkin county but White is waking up to a sense of her duty, and a big yield of gold may be expected from both this year.

Mr. Ashley moved the machinery of his dredge boat from the Chestate river this week down to his mine in Dawson county. This doesn't look much like he means to resume work here in the spring. Work is being pushed with a vim at the Lumpkin by R. W. Walker. The ore continues good and things are very encouraging in that part of the diggings, much more so than they have been for years.

With the Nimbleshill ditch completed to Auraria giving 2000 miners inches of water Auraria will be one of the biggest mining camps in all the southern gold belt. The whole district is a soft saprolite formation and will yield big returns with plenty of water.

Geo. E. Towns, says the Blue Ridge Post, president and manager of the Razuz Hill Mining Co., which is operating the Razuz Hill Gold Mines in Fannin county, returned Saturday from Atlanta, where he went to buy a boiler to operate the mine with. It is here on the side track, and as soon as the weather will permit it will be carried out to the mines and put to work.

The production of gold in the United States for the year 1901 is estimated at $80,200,800, a slight increase over the previous year. The yield of Alaska fell $1,000,000, while Colorado made a slight gain over 1900, and the other producers were nearly stationary. The yield in Georgia was $144,900. This should be very encouraging to the people of Lumpkin county when they consider but few Georgia counties produce any gold and that Lumpkin stands head. Tennessee and Maryland only produced $200 worth each, while Colorado leads off with her $20,000,000 worth of the yellow metal.

Down at the Hand more laborers are being employed and things are presenting a livelier appearance at this mine than they have for some time. The newly dressed silver plates have been returned and four batteries with twenty stamps are being run both day and night on ore that produces gold from that mine in paying quantities under the supervision of a practical native mill man of years experience who understands the manner of keeping the plates so as to save the gold which is one branch of mining that is very important. Messrs. Fisher, Bloomer, Jacobs and Megley, members of the advisory board of the Consolidated Co., arrived last week, one of whom informed us that all the damaged mill plates would be put in order, which means that they expect to start up the full 120 stamps. Success to you.

Work in the cuts have been resumed by the Crown Mountain Co. The break of the gear wheel of the pump, which we mentioned in our last issue, matted a "temperary suspension which we thought at the time would continue longer than it has. The pump used is the Dean Triplex Pump, being three pumps geared together, but each separate and distinct. The Dean Pump Co. consented to let the pump which had the broken wheel be disconnected and the other two separated. This was done last Friday and it has been running smoothly ever since. Indeed nearly as much water is being lifted by the two uninjured sections as was by the entire pump. We understand that fine ore was uncovered in the Reed shaft last week and a vein struck in the Preacher shaft. Work is now being pushed with energy in all departments. Everything again is life like in and around the Crown Mountain. There is nothing in the way of continuous operations.

The Humboldt (Neb.) Standard speaks of Dr. Garver and his recent visit here as follows, together with his opinion of the mines: Dr. W. F. Garver arrived home Saturday from an extended visit to the South. During his absence he visited many places of interest but the objective point of his trip was the famous Dahlonega gold mines in Lumpkin county, Ga., seventy miles north of Atlanta, of which he is very enthusiastic in his praise. The doctor has resided here continuously for more than eighteen years, has been successful in business and his opinion is therefore regarded as of much value by those desiring safe investments that are profitable. The mines are located on a 710 acre tract of thoroughly proven gold bearing land through which runs the Chestate river. He brought back and is showing to his friends many valuable specimens picked up by himself in the company of a party of friends he spent a week in careful investigation of the entire district and found quartz veins in the hills on both sides of the river, bearing gold in paying quantities from the grass roots down. The development of these mines, he believes, is only in its infancy and that with the assistance of capital and a greater amount of modern machinery the possibilities would be wonderful. He speaks highly complimentary of the treatment he received at the hands of the family of Joel T. Miller, Superintendent of the mines at where home the party was royally entertained while there. Vice President Robt. S. Disney and General Manager Willard I. Rush accompanied the party from Kansas City to and from the mines. In these men he found not only gentlemen but jovial associates ever ready and willing to contribute to the pleasure and comfort of the party on the long journey.

The sale of a yoke of cattle by the constable up in Cane Creek district last Saturday belonging to Julia Patton, brought about considerable trouble. They were sold in favor of B. F. Anderson or Anderson & Jones of Dahlonega. Julia was the principal and Johnie Ferguson the security on a certain note for which they were sold to settle. At the sale no one seemed to care to bid and the property was purchased by Mr. Ferguson. Immediately the defendant came to town and went before Squire Worley and swore out a warrant against Ferguson, charging him with attempting to outrage her two months ago. Ferguson was in the city at the time and said that he would make bond for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court as soon as Bailiff Coffee made the arrest. At last accounts the warrant had not been executed.

I will preach Sunday morning Feb. 2nd, on "Religion in the Home Life." Every body is cordially invited to attend the services.

E. D. DeWeese,

Pastor Bap. Church.

The work is progressing on the Electric Railway dam well considering the disagreeable weather and very short days. It had reached a height last week of nine or ten feet, and has to be built fifteen feet more.
